4 connected to their home offices while simultaneously reducing the files and personnel necessary in the 5 courtroom. Subject to the Court’s approval, the parties will retain Courtroom Connect to provide this 6 service. Courtroom Connect does not require any court resources to provide service, and installs a 7 network that is completely independent of the Court’s systems. Courtroom Connect only needs the 8 permission of the Court to temporarily locate the minimal amount of required equipment and cabling to 9 connect to the Internet.

10 Many trials in federal courts have utilized Internet in the courtroom. Specifically, Courtroom
11 Connect has provided Internet access in the Northern District of California on past trials such as Perry
12 v. Schwarzenegger before former Chief Judge Vaughn Walker and Larry Bowato v. Chevron before
13 Judge Susan Illston. In addition, Courtroom Connect has provided service on trials before Judge Martin
14 Jenkins, Judge Charles Breyer, Judge Claudia Wilken, and others in Northern District of California.
15 Only users approved by the Court will be able to access the Internet, and all users are required to use 16 proven security standards.
