The parties have stipulated that, because the issues of whether this the proper forum for this action and whether the Court has personal jurisdiction over certain defendants have been held in abeyance pending discovery, with a further briefing deadline of August 11, it would not serve the interests of judicial economy for the Court to decide a motion for class certification before deciding those issues. They represent that the proposed continuance will not materially affect the case schedule.

They stipulate that the deadline of July 14, 2011, for a hearing on any motion for class certification be continued to September 29, 2011. The stipulation is GRANTED. The parties shall please remain diligent and work hard to keep the case schedule on track.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 26, 2011.
