11 TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

12 Pursuant to Local Rules 6-2, 7-12, and 40-1, plaintiffs John Shirley (individually and as 13 trustee of the John F. Shirley and Julie E. Shirley 2003 Trust) and Julie Shirley, individually
 14 (“plaintiffs”), defendant and third party complainant Wachovia Mortgage, a division of Wells
 15 Fargo Bank, N.A., formerly known as Wachovia Mortgage, FSB (“Wachovia”), and third party 16 defendants LSI Title Company, Lender Processing Services, Inc., and Fidelity National 17 Information Services, Inc. (the “third party defendants”) (collectively, the “parties”) seek an order 18 resetting existing case deadlines and the trial date. Grounds for the request are set forth in the 19 following recitals.

20 RECITALS

21 A. On August 26, 2011, plaintiffs and Wachovia filed a joint stipulation that 22 requested leave of court allowing Wachovia to file a third party complaint that would bring the 23 third party defendants into this action. (Doc. 31). As noted in this stipulation, bringing the third 24 party defendants into this suit served two critical functions. First, it served the interests of 25 judicial economy, because the surviving claim in the First Amended Complaint and Wachovia’s
 26 claims against the third party defendants (as Wachovia’s closing agent) arise out of the same
 27 loan transaction and occurrence. A determination of all claims in one proceeding is necessary
 28 and appropriate to avoid the multiplicity of actions that would result if Wachovia were required

1 to defend against plaintiffs' claims and then litigate a separate action against the third party
2 defendants for indemnification. Second, inclusion of all necessary defendants in this action will 3 help facilitate serious settlement discussions.

4 B. On August 31, 2011, the Court issued an order that granted Wachovia leave to file
5 a third party complaint by September 10, 2011. (Doc. 32). Wachovia filed and served its third 6 party complaint on the third party defendants on September 8, 2011. (Docs. 33 - 36).

7 C. On October 5, 2011, Wachovia and the third party defendants filed a stipulation
8 pursuant to Local Rule 6-1(a), allowing the third party defendants to file their response to 9 Wachovia's third party complaint by November 4, 2011. (Doc. 43). This will allow the response
10 to be heard by the present cut-off for motion hearings in this case, which is set for December 9, 11 2011. (Doc. 30).

12 D. As set forth in the accompanying Declaration of Michael Rapkine ("Rapkine 13 Decl."), counsel for the third party defendants has emphasized that given the fact that they were 14 recently retained, it will not be possible to adequately prepare for trial should the present
15 deadlines remain in place. (Rapkine Decl. ¶ 5). In addition, a continuance of the existing case 16 schedule will allow the parties to engage in meaningful settlement discussions without the need 17 for further motion practice.

1 STIPULATION

2 Subject to this Court's consent, the parties stipulate that the present trial date and 3 associated deadlines be vacated, thereby allowing the parties sufficient time to conduct discovery,
4 prepare for trial, and engage in settlement negotiations. Based on the fact that the third party 5 defendants were recently joined in this action, the parties respectfully request that the currently 6 scheduled dates be continued 120 days, as set forth in the proposed order that accompanies this 7 stipulation. Or in the alternative, the parties request that the existing deadlines be continued to 8 dates convenient to the Court.

Case No. 3:10-cv-03870-SC

[Assigned to the Honorable Samuel Conti]

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL RAPKINE IN SUPPORT OF JOINT STIPULATION AND ORDER
GRANTING CONTINUANCE OF TRIAL AND ASSOCIATED DEADLINES

1 I, Michael Rapkine, declare:

2 1. I am an attorney at law licensed before this Court and associated with the law firm
3 of Anglin, Flewelling, Rasmussen, Campbell & Trytten LLP, counsel of record for defendant and 4 third party complainant Wachovia Mortgage, a division of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., formerly 5 known as Wachovia Mortgage, FSB. (“Wachovia”). I make this declaration in support of the joint 6 stipulation of all parties and proposed order granting a continuance of the trial date and associated 7 deadlines.

8 2. Having exhausted non-judicial alternatives in the hope of obtaining full 9 indemnification or partial indemnity towards a global settlement, Wachovia had no choice but to 10 pursue its third party claims against the closing agent and affiliates (the “third party 11 defendants”). On August 31, 2011, this Court issued an order that granted Wachovia leave to 12 file a third party complaint by September 10, 2011. (Doc. 32). Wachovia filed and served its 13 third party complaint on the third party defendants on September 8, 2011. (Docs. 33 - 36).

14 3. Pursuant to the current scheduling order in effect (Docs. 29 and 30), all discovery
15 must be completed by December 6, 2011; all motions shall be heard by December 9, 2011; a pre-16 trial conference shall be held on January 27, 2012; and trial shall commence on February 6, 2012.

17 4. Given that the third party defendants just recently retained counsel, the undersigned 18 respectfully requests that the existing case schedule be continued so that the third party defendants 19 can assess their exposure, thereby allowing all parties to engage in meaningful settlement 20 negotiations without the need for further motion practice.

21 5. More importantly, counsel for the third party defendants (Daniel M. Livingston of 22 Payne & Fears, LLP) has emphasized that given the fact that they were recently retained, it will 23 not be possible for his firm to adequately prepare for trial should the present case deadlines remain 24 in place.

25 6. Pursuant to Local Rule 6-2(a)(2), this is the second request for a continuance in this 26 action. Previously, plaintiff and Wachovia requested a one-month continuance of the hearing on 27 Wachovia’s initial 12(b)(6) motion, which was granted by this Court. (Docs. 7 and 9).
