UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DAVID LITMON, JR.,

No. C-10-3894 EMC

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR COURT TO RESCIND ORDER

EDMUND G. BROWN, Attorney General of
California, et al.,

(Docket No. 50)

Defendants.

Plaintiff David Litmon, Jr. has moved the Court to rescind its order of September 12, 2011, in which it granted Defendants' motion to strike the first amended complaint. According to Mr. Litmon, the order should be rescinded because it incorrectly stated that he did not file an opposition to the motion.

Mr. Litmon is correct that he filed an opposition. However, that opposition was not timely filed. See Civ. L.R. 7-3(a) (providing that an opposition must be filed and served not more than 14 days after the motion is filed and served). In any event, the Court has now considered the arguments made by Mr. Litmon in his opposition and finds none of them availing. For example, Mr. Litmon claims that Governor Brown signed and/or authorized California Penal Code § 290.012; however, that does not mean that the governor is responsible for its enforcement. Also, Mr. Litmon does not address in his opposition the basis on which other persons allegedly similarly situated received preferential treatment. Finally, contrary to what Mr. Litmon asserts, the arguments made by Defendants are entirely appropriate for consideration at the Rule 12(b)(6) phase rather than on

1 summary judgment. Only if a plaintiff pleads a facially plausible claim may he or she be permitted
2 to proceed with the case.

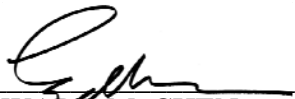

3 Finally, the Court notes that Mr. Litmon has not been prejudiced to the extent that, in its 4 September 12 order, the Court gave him an opportunity to file a second amended complaint which
5 he has now done.

6 To the extent Mr. Litmon has asked for alternative relief – i.e., that the September 12 order
7 be amended to reflect that he did an opposition – the Court notes that its order here renders that 8 relief moot. The Court acknowledges that Mr. Litmon did file an opposition but, as noted above, the 9 opposition was not timely filed.

10 This order disposes of Docket No. 50.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
