23
 24 Defendants respectfully request leave to reply to Plaintiff's response to the Court's Order

28 Defendants' Opposed Motion for Leave to File Defendants' Reply to Plaintiff's Response to Order to Show Cause
 CASE NO. C 10-3910 MEJ

1 California; a Court-ordered in-person meet-and-confer on March 23, 2017; and a hearing on his
2 Motion to Stay Proceedings on March 23, 2017. ECF Nos. 230, 210, 220. Additionally, the
3 OSC noted that Plaintiff has failed to comply with his Rule 26 obligations and the Court's March
4 9, 2017 Order because he has not provided Defendants with documents related to his damages.
5 ECF Nos. 203, 213, 216; see ECF Nos. 194 ¶¶ 1-2, 203 ¶ 2; Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii). The 6 Court further stated that sanctions may include, but not limited to, monetary penalties, striking
7 Plaintiff's request for damages, or dismissing his claims.
8

9 At the hearing on March 23, 2017, Defendants suggested that the Court consider limiting 10 Plaintiff's damages at trial as a remedial measure for his noncompliance with Court orders. The 11 Court declined to decide the issue at the time and indicated that Defendants would have an 12 opportunity to respond to the OSC too.
13

14 After the Court granted Plaintiff's request for a 7-day extension, he filed his response to 15 the OSC on April 6, 2017. ECF Nos. 229, 234. Defendants request leave to reply to Plaintiff's
16 response so that we may address several issues. More specifically, a reply by Defendants is 17 necessary to clarify their position regarding the propriety of sanctions and to address Plaintiff's
18 arguments regarding his failure to comply with the rules and Court orders. Defendants contacted
19 Plaintiff on April 10, 2017, for his position on this request for leave to file a reply, and he 20 indicated that he opposed the motion.
21

22 Defendants hereby attach their reply to Plaintiff's response to the OSC as Exhibit 1.
