

1 Absent objection from the parties, the Court will publicly file the MSJ Order without
2 redactions 14 days from the date of this order. The parties are directed to file any objections to the
3 Court's public release of the MSJ Order within 7 days of the date of this order. Any objecting party
4 shall propose redactions to the MSJ Order. Parties are instructed to propose only those redactions
5 that are narrowly tailored and necessary in compliance with Local Rule 79-5, and shall justify any
6 proposed redactions. Any response to an opposing party's proposed redactions shall be filed within
7 14 days of the date of this order. No replies will be accepted.

8
9 IT IS SO ORDERED.

10
11 Dated: March 1, 2012

12
13
14 _____
15 EDWARD M. CHEN
16 United States District Judge
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28