JANE DOE and ANNE RASKIN,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO, et al.,

Defendants.

NO. C10-04700 TEH

ORDER ON MOTIONS IN LIMINE

This matter comes before the Court on the motions in limine filed by both parties on December 20, 2011. Presently, there is a hearing scheduled for January 10, 2012, at which oral argument on these motions was contemplated. The hearing date shall remain as set, with oral argument to be heard on Plaintiffs’ motion in limine number one, pertaining to the contents of the emails involved in this case. On the remaining motions in limine, the Court now rules as set forth below.

Plaintiffs’ Motion Two

The Court hereby GRANTS Plaintiffs’ motion in limine number two. Though the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure exempt from the otherwise-mandatory disclosures of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) that evidence which is to be presented at trial “solely for the purposes of impeachment” (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3)), it does not exempt that which bears substantive (i.e. non-impeachment) value. The witnesses, as described by the Defendants, do not seem to be “solely for the purposes of impeachment”—in fact, the Defendants describe two of their witnesses as having the substantive value of establishing a chain of custody for relevant evidence, two others for establishing a lack of consent to disclosure of information, and does not describe the contemplated purpose of the remaining eight witnesses. Because Defendants

United States District Court

1 have failed to establish that these witnesses are to be used solely for the purposes of
2 impeachment, and did not disclose these witnesses to the Plaintiffs as required by Rule 26,
3 the witnesses are excluded.

5 Plaintiffs' Motion Three

6 As the Defendants failed to respond to Plaintiffs' motion in limine number three, it is 7 GRANTED as unopposed.

9 Defendants' Motion One

10 Defendants' motion in limine number one seeks to exclude evidence that would be 11 used to support claims not presently made. As it is common practice to deny the inclusion of 12 evidence unrelated to any pending claim and therefore wholly irrelevant to the case at bar,
13 this motion is GRANTED. However, this ruling shall not extend to bar evidence related to 14 presently pending claims.

16 Defendants' Motion Two

17 Defendants' motion in limine number two similarly seeks to exclude evidence of a
18 claim for exemplary and punitive damages which has not actually been made by Plaintiffs. It
19 is DENIED AS MOOT.

21 Defendants' Motion Three

22 Defendants' motion in limine number three pertains to the conduct that is alleged to 23 have occurred prior to October of 2009. Defendants' claim that this conduct should be 24 barred as outside the statute of limitations period for the claims made by Plaintiffs in this 25 case. Plaintiffs respond that the "continuing violation" doctrine allows the admission of 26 evidence of acts outside the statute of limitations period where "(1) the actions are 27 sufficiently similar in kind; (2) they occur with sufficient frequency; and (3) they have not 28 acquired a degree of "permanence" so that employees are on notice that further efforts at

1 informal conciliation with the employer to obtain accommodation or end harassment would
2 be futile.” Richards v. CH2M Hill, Inc., 26 Cal.4th 798, 802 (2001). Here, neither party
3 claims that there was a period of time during which the Defendants were in contact with the
4 Plaintiffs without incident—rather, the interruptions alleged by the Defendants were periods
5 of time when Plaintiffs were altogether absent. Therefore, the continuing violation doctrine
6 applies in this case, and the evidence of earlier acts is appropriate material. This motion is
7 DENIED.

9 Defendants’ Motion Four

10 Defendants’ motion in limine number four seeks to exclude evidence of harassment
11 neither witnessed by nor directed at the Plaintiffs. Such evidence would constitute hearsay, 12 and, even if not hearsay evidence, lacks sufficient relevance for inclusion. The motion is 13 therefore GRANTED.

15 Defendants’ Motion Five

16 Defendants’ motion in limine number five seeks to exclude the testimony of Plaintiffs’
17 human resources expert. The testimony of this expert will assist the jury in determining 18 whether the response of the City and County of San Francisco to the complaints of Plaintiffs
19 was adequate, and therefore will aid the jury in their decision on Plaintiffs claim under Cal.
20 Gov. Code section 12940(k). It does not seem that this testimony will encroach on the 21 provenance of the jury or draw any legal conclusions (which would, of course, be 22 inadmissible). This motion is therefore DENIED.

23
24 Defendants’ Motion Six

25 Defendants’ motion in limine number six seeks to exclude Plaintiffs’ expert on 26 economics, who Plaintiffs hope to use to establish an amount of damages. The concerns
27 listed by Defendants in their motion are proper fodder for cross-examination, but not grounds
28 for exclusion of the testimony altogether. The motion is therefore DENIED.

1 Defendants' Motion Seven

2 For the same reason, Defendants' motion in limine number seven is similarly
3 DENIED.

5 Defendants' Motion Eight

6 Defendants' final motion in limine, number eight, seeks to preclude Plaintiffs'
7 computer forensics expert, Winston Krone, from testifying as to the conclusions contained in 8 his supplemental report. The delay described by Defendants in Mr. Krone's progress, which 9 gave rise to the untimeliness of his latter conclusions, is not excusable in the eyes of this
10 Court. The motion is therefore GRANTED.

11
12 Further Hearing

13 Oral argument on Plaintiffs' motion in limine number one shall be heard at the hearing
14 presently set on January 10th, 2012. The parties should come prepared to discuss the 15 expected use and relevance of the content of the emails, with particular attention to how the 16 evidence may or may not duplicate the testimony of other witnesses expected to testify.
17 Specific questions for the parties will be provided at the hearing.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.
