PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 For good cause appearing, under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(1), IT IS
2 HEREBY ORDERED that:
3
4 (1) All documents, materials, information, privilege logs, and deposition testimony
5 (“Protected Materials”) disclosed by Diego Borja and his counsel pursuant to this Court’s
6 order of December 1, 2010 shall be used by the Republic of Ecuador, the Procuraduría
7 General del Estado, their agents, their counsel, and their counsel’s agents (collectively,
8 “Applicants”) solely for the purposes of preparing for and conducting the Bilateral
9 Investment Treaty arbitration entitled Chevron Corporation and Texaco Petroleum
10 Corporation v. The Republic of Ecuador, PCA Case No. 2009-23, any appeals from 11 judgments or awards in those proceedings, any actions under 28 U.S.C. § 1782 seeking 12 discovery for use in those proceedings, and any other related civil actions in which 13 Applicants are a party, have appeared, or have an interest (collectively, “BIT
14 Litigation”).
15
16 (2) Applicants shall disclose Protected Materials only to those persons or entities responsible
17 for preparing for and conducting the BIT Litigation on behalf of Applicants, or to 18 witnesses (and their counsel) who provide deposition or in-court testimony in the BIT
19 Litigation. Furthermore, except as provided in Paragraph (3), Applicants shall not
20 disclose any Protected Materials to the Fiscalía General del Estado or his agents
21 (collectively, “FGE”).
22
23 (3) Notwithstanding Paragraph (2), the provisions of this Order shall not be construed as 24 preventing the disclosure of any Protected Materials to any court, tribunal, arbitrator or 25 any agent of the foregoing for the purposes of conducting the BIT Litigation.
26 Furthermore, this Order shall not be construed as preventing Applicants from disclosing
27 Protected Materials if lawfully compelled to do so by a subpoena, court order, or 28

1 compulsory legal process. If Applicants are lawfully compelled to disclose any Protected
2 Materials, then they shall provide Borja and his counsel with reasonably advance notice
3 of the Protected Materials to be disclosed, the name(s) of the person(s) or entities to
4 whom they will be disclosed, and a copy of the subpoena, court order, or legal process
5 document compelling the disclosure.
6

7 (4) Applicants shall not solicit the FGE to issue a subpoena or seek a court order, or 8 otherwise invoke compulsory legal process, to obtain Protected Materials from 9 Applicants.

10 (5) Within ninety days of the conclusion of the BIT Litigation, Applicants shall return all
11 Protected Materials to counsel for Borja, or otherwise destroy them.

12 (6) Nothing in this Order shall restrict the use of documents or information obtained by a
13 party from a source other than Diego Borja, his counsel or his counsel's agents. To the 14 extent the Protected Materials contain documents or information that are also publicly
15 available, nothing in this Order shall restrict the use of such documents or information.
16

17 (7) Disclosure of Protected Materials to any person or entity shall be accompanied by notice
18 of this Order.
19

20 (8) Any breach or violation of this Order may be punishable as contempt. Furthermore, in
21 the event the Court finds that Applicants have breached or violated this Order, Applicants
22 shall immediately return to counsel for Borja all Protected Materials or otherwise destroy
23 them.
24

25 ///

26 ///

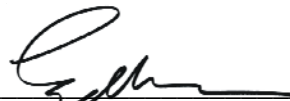

27 ///

28 ///

1 (9) This Order shall remain in effect until all Protected Materials in the possession, custody,
2 or control of the Applicants are returned or destroyed. This Court retains exclusive
3 jurisdiction to enforce this Order.
