Case No. 11-CV-00848 (CRB)

CONSENTED MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF CASE MANAGEMENT
 CONFERENCE AND RELATED
 DEADLINES

DATE: July 22, 2011
 TIME: 8:30 a.m.
 COURTROOM: 6, 17TH FLOOR

20 Plaintiff Xoom Corporation (“Xoom”) filed the complaint in this action on February 23,
 21 2011. Pursuant to Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Xoom had 120 days, or 22 until June 23, 2011, to serve the summons and complaint. On June 22, 2011 the parties filed a
 23 Consented Motion for an Extension of Service Deadline requesting that the service deadline be
 24 extended to July 13, 2011. The motion was granted by the Court on June 24, 2011 and the Case
 25 Management Conference was moved to July 22. The parties subsequently filed a Second
 26 Consented Motion for an Extension of Service Deadline requesting that the service deadline be 27 extended to August 3, 2011 because of settlement negotiations. The motion was granted on 28 June 12, 2011.

1 The Case Management Conference in this proceeding is set to occur on July 22, 2011.
2 Although Defendants have not yet been served, various deadlines are triggered by the date for the
3 Case Management Conference, including a July 15, 2011 deadline for filing a joint case
4 management statement.

5 Given that Xoom has not yet served the Complaint and is in settlement discussions with
6 Defendants about this matter, there is good cause for the Court to continue the Case Management
7 Conference and to extend the various dates calculated from the Case Management Conference
8 date. Accordingly, Xoom respectfully requests a continuance of the Case Management
9 Conference until August 12, 2011.

10 Dated: July 14, 2011
