UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
For the Northern District of California

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of California
Oakland Division

WILLIAM HAMILTON, No. C 11-00888 LB
Plaintiff, ORDER RE 3/28/2012 DISCOVERY LETTER
v. LETTER
RADIOSHACK CORPORATION, et al., [ECF No. 53]
Defendants.

On March 28, 2012, Plaintiff William Hamilton filed a discovery letter in which he requested a telephonic conference call so that the court could provide the parties with guidance as to whether future meet-and-confer sessions should be audiotaped. ECF No. 53 at 1. Plaintiff explained that Defendant RadioShack Corporation refused to authorize the filing of a joint discovery letter. Id. This is the second time that Plaintiff has filed a single-party discovery letter. See Order, ECF No. 41 at 1. The parties are warned that a failure to comply with the court’s standing order may result in sanctions. Furthermore, if the parties are unable to coordinate meet-and-confer sessions that result in joint discovery letters, the court will order the parties to meet in the court’s jury room at the court’s convenience.

The court DENIES Plaintiff’s request without prejudice. The court also SETS a telephonic case management conference for April 5, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. to discuss procedures going forward. The court will initiate the call using direct dial numbers that the parties shall provide by the parties to courtroom deputy Lashanda Scott at 415-522-3140.
