28UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JAMSHID S. KASHANNEJAD,

No. C-11-2228 EMC

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER RE DEFENDANTS' FILING OF NOVEMBER 6, 2012UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES, et al.,(Docket No. 166)Defendants.

Previously, the Court issued an order instructing Defendants to provide a declaration certifying whether it was possible for the transportation letter(s) to be provided to the Swiss embassy in Tehran by a means suggested by Plaintiff in his filing of November 2, 2012. See Docket No. 165 (order). Defendants filed a declaration on November 6, 2012, in which they essentially confirm that the means suggested by Plaintiff is possible. See generally Docket No. 166 (Vinet Decl.). Defendants suggest, however, that, because of the time that this process may take, a pick-up date in early December 2012 is advisable. Plaintiff had previously stated an intent to pick up the transportation letter(s) on November 25, 2012.

In light of the above, the Court hereby modifies its prior orders to the extent that Plaintiff shall no longer be required to pick up the transportation letter(s) from a U.S. embassy in Turkey. Rather, the transportation letter(s) shall be conveyed to the Swiss embassy in Tehran by the means explained in the Vinet declaration. The transportation letter shall identify Emirates as the airline carrier as this is the carrier that was identified by Plaintiff in his filing of November 2.
