ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS'
REQUEST TO CONSOLIDATE THE
CASES AND REQUEST TO EXTEND
TIME TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT

(Docket Nos. 80-81)

On July 20, 2012, Plaintiffs submitted a letter request to consolidate the cases. Defendant ABC submitted a letter response on July 23, 2012. In consideration of the parties' submission, Plaintiffs' request to consolidate the cases is denied without prejudice. The Court will continue to coordinate pre-trial proceedings, including discovery, ADR and motions in all related cases. No motion shall be filed without coordinating and joining all appropriate parties thereto; no motion shall be filed without first seeking permission from the Court by letter briefly describing the motion and identifying all participating/joined parties thereto. The Court reserves the authority to 1 consolidate some or all of the cases if and when it deems it appropriate, including for trial.

2 Plaintiffs' request to extend time within which to file amended complaint is denied.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.

4 Dated: July 24, 2012
