2. DISCOVERY

a. All non-expert discovery shall be completed no later than May 31, 2013, with the exception that discovery shall be stayed as to Officer Pena pending the resolution of the motion for summary judgment as to qualified immunity. There will be no further non-expert discovery after that date except by order of the Court for good cause shown. Motions to compel non-expert discovery must be filed within the time limits contained in Civil Local Rule 37-3.

b. Prior to the settlement conference each party shall be allowed to propound 10 requests for documents, 5 interrogatories and 5 requests for admission on each opposing party.

1 c. A deposition of Ms. Steinhart shall occur on October 16, 2012, at 1:00 p.m. at 2 City Hall in Santa Rosa and shall be limited to liability and not exceed 2 hours. If the case does not
3 settle at the settlement conference, Defendants may complete her deposition.

4 d. Depositions of police officers prior to Defendants' motion for summary
5 judgment
6 based on qualified immunity shall be limited to Officer Pena and Officer Crespan and shall be limited
7 to liability and not exceed 1 hour per officer. Ms. Steinhart and Mr. Fritch are ordered to participate in 8 a telephonic conference to discuss officer availability for the depositions which shall occur during the 9 week of October 15, 2012 and/or October 22, 2012.

10 e. Initial expert disclosures shall be made no later than July 23, 2013. Rebuttal

21 referenced in the complain by Friday, October 5, 2012, via email. Plaintiff shall keep the original 22 videotape safe, unaltered and available for viewing by Defendants at a mutually convenient time.

23 i. Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires all parties to 24 supplement or correct their initial disclosures, expert disclosures, pretrial disclosures, and responses to 25 discovery requests under the circumstances itemized in that Rule, and when ordered by the Court. The 26 Court expects that the parties will supplement and/or correct their disclosures promptly when required
27 under that Rule, without the need for a request from opposing counsel. In addition to the general
28 requirements of Rule 26(e)(1), the parties will supplement and/or correct all previously made disclosures and discovery responses 28 days before the fact discovery cutoff date.

1           j. Pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-1(b), telephone conferences are available to resolve
2 disputes during a discovery event, such as a deposition, where the resolution during the event likely
3 would result in substantial savings of expense or time.

4           k. Privilege logs. If a party withholds information that is responsive to a discovery
5 request, and is otherwise discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, by claiming that it
6 is privileged, or protected from discovery under the attorney work product doctrine or any other
7 protective doctrine (including, but not limited to, privacy rights), that party shall prepare a "privilege
8 log" (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)) setting forth the privilege relied upon and specifying separately for each 9 document or for each category of similarly situated documents:

- 10                           1. The name and job title or capacity of the author;
- 11                           2. The name and job title or capacity of each recipient;
- 12                           3. The date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) 13                           on which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its 14                           author(s);
- 15                           4. The title and description of the document;
- 16                           5. The subject matter addressed in the document;
- 17                           6. The purpose(s) for which it was prepared or communicated; and
- 18                           7. The specific basis for the claim that it is privileged.

19           The privilege log will be produced as quickly as possible, but no later than 14 days after the 20 discovery responses are due (in a rolling production, 14 days after each set of documents is produced),
21 unless the parties stipulate or the Court orders otherwise in a particular case.

22           1. In responding to requests for documents and materials under Rule 34 of the 23 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all parties shall affirmatively state in a written response served on all 24 other parties the full extent to which they will produce materials and shall, promptly after the 25 production, confirm in writing that they have produced all such materials so described that are locatable
26 after a diligent search of all locations at which such materials might plausibly exist.

27           3. MOTIONS

28           The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to join other parties shall be

2 be November 2, 2012.

15 timing of disclosures required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3) and other pretrial disclosures
