UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
For the Northern District of California

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of California
San Francisco Division

IN RE HULU PRIVACY LITIGATION No. C 11-03764 LB

ORDER VACATING ORDER FOR ADDITIONAL BRIEFING AND
RESETTING AUGUST 23 HEARING
DATE TO AUGUST 17

_____ /
The court previously granted Hulu’s request for additional briefing after the Supreme Court’s decision in Edwards. See 6/11/12 Order, ECF No. 64. Given the proceedings before the Supreme Court, further briefing is not necessary. The court previously set the matter specially to accommodate a briefing schedule and a hearing date during the summer. Given that no briefing is needed, the court re-sets the hearing to its normal motions hearing date of Friday, August 17, 2012, at 11 a.m. If that date is inconvenient for the parties because of previously-scheduled vacation or case commitments, the parties may re-set it to any other available motions calendar. Those calendars are generally the first and third Thursdays of each month. (The court can hear the matter as early as July 19, 2012 with at least a week’s advance notice.) At the hearing, the court will hear Hulu’s Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 9, 2012

LAUREL BEELER
United States Magistrate Judge
