Re: Andrew Reibman v. Renesas Electronics America, Inc.
No. 11-CV-03847 - JCS (N.D. Cal.)

Your Honor:

We write in regard to the September 27, 2013 notice from the Court scheduling a hearing for October 4, 2013 at 1:30 p.m. P.D.T. ("Hearing") upon the motion of Defendant Renesas Electronics America, Inc. to Substitute Party Pursuant to FRCP 19(a) and/or 25(c), Amend Its Answer, and Assert Its Declaratory Judgment Claims Against Mishcon ("Motion").

Pursuant to Your Honor's August 23 and September 23, 2013 Orders, Mishcon made special and limited appearances in this action for the purpose of submitting an Opposition and Surreply to the Motion. See Docket Nos. 175, 181. As the Court is aware, Mishcon is located in New York and would incur substantial expense if its attorneys were required to appear personally in California for the hearing. Mishcon is acting on its own behalf in opposing the Motion and thus wishes to keep costs and expenses to a minimum.

In these premises, we respectfully request permission for my Partner Vincent Filardo, Jr., Esq. and the undersigned to participate in the upcoming October 4, 2013 Hearing by telephone. The undersigned's direct phone number is above, and Mr. Filardo's is 212-612-3265.

Respectfully,

James J. McGuire
