

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEVE CRUMP,

No. C-11-4533 EMC (pr)

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO LIFT STAY

Sgt. Officer TREVELYON JONES, et al.,

Defendants.

---

Plaintiff has sent a letter to the Court requesting that the stay of this action be lifted so that he may file another amended complaint. This action for damages for false arrest and malicious prosecution has been stayed since October 6, 2011 under the Heck rule. The Court ruled in 2011 that the claims could not go forward because they would implicate the validity of pending criminal proceedings. See Docket # 11 at 3 (citing Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994), and Wallace v. Kato, 127 S. Ct. 1091 (2007)). Although Plaintiff apparently wants to resume litigating this action, he has not shown that the criminal charges against him have been dismissed or otherwise invalidated. He has not shown a reason to lift the Heck stay. Accordingly, the motion to lift the stay is DENIED. (Docket # 15.)

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 1, 2014

EDWARD M. CHEN
United States District Judge