IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

EARNEST C. WOODS, II,)	No. C 11-4730 JSW (PR)
Plaintiff,)	ORDER OF SERVICE
v.)
ROBERT AYERS, et al.,) Defendants.)

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, a California prisoner proceeding pro se, filed this rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The complaint was dismissed with leave to amend, and Plaintiff filed a timely amended complaint. The Court now reviews the amended complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A and orders it served upon Defendants.

DISCUSSION

I. Standard of Review

Federal courts must engage in a preliminary screening of cases in which prisoners seek redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The Court must identify cognizable claims or dismiss any portion of the complaint, if the complaint “is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted,” or “seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.” Id. § 1915A(b). Pro se pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2) requires only "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." "Specific facts are not

1 necessary; the statement need only "give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim
2 is and the grounds upon which it rests." Erickson v. Pardus, 127 S. Ct. 2197, 2200
3 (2007) (citations omitted). Although in order to state a claim a complaint "does not need
4 detailed factual allegations, . . . a plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds of his
5 'entitle[ment] to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic
6 recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do. . . . Factual allegations must 7 be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative level." Bell Atlantic Corp. v.
8 Twombly, 127 S. Ct. 1955, 1964-65 (2007) (citations omitted). A complaint must proffer
9 "enough facts to state a claim for relief that is plausible on its face." Id. at 1974. Pro se
10 pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696,
11 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

12 To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two elements:

13 (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and
14 (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state
15 law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

16 II. Legal Claims

17 Plaintiff sets forth three claims for relief: (1) retaliation; (2) deliberate
18 indifference to his medical care; and (3) discipline and segregation without due process.

19 His first claim is against Defendant Ayers, the Warden at San Quentin State 20 Prison. He claims that Ayers implemented an unconstitutional policy of retaliation. In 21 his amended complaint, he alleges that Defendant Tomas retaliated against him for filing
22 grievances by placing him in administrative segregation and issuing false disciplinary 23 reports against him. He also alleges that Defendant Burkhart retaliated against him by 24 refusing to issue a kosher meal, and then only allowing Plaintiff ten minutes to eat it.
25 When liberally construed, these allegations state a cognizable claim for relief.

26 He also claims that Defendants Ayers, Cahala, Frates, Puu, Lee, Schwartz, Arnold
27 and Curry were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs by causing him to be 28 transferred to segregated housing knowing that would cause him to not receive the

1 surgery he needed. He also claims that Defendants Ayers, Cahala, Frates, Lee and Puu
2 were involved in finding him guilty of violating prison rules in violation of his right to
3 due process. In the amended complaint, he alleges that Defendants did not provide him
4 with adequate procedural protections and that the finding was false. When liberally
5 construed, these claims are also cognizable.

6 The other Defendants are not included as Defendants on any of Plaintiff's three
7 claims, and consequently the amended complaint will be dismissed as to them.

8 CONCLUSION

9 1. For the foregoing reasons, the Plaintiff's claims against Defendants Ayers,
10 Cahala, Frates, Puu, Lee, Schwartz, Arnold and Curry are cognizable. The claims
11 against the other Defendants are DISMISSED.

12 2. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons and the United States Marshal
13 shall serve, without prepayment of fees, a copy of the amended complaint and all
14 attachments thereto, and a copy of this order upon Defendants: Director Robert Ayers,
15 Captain Cahayla, Lieutenant Frates, Sergeant Puu, Lieutenant Lee, Teresa
16 Schwartz, Eric Arnold and Captain Vern Curry at San Quentin State Prison.¹

17 The Clerk shall also mail a courtesy copy of the amended complaint and this order
18 to the California Attorney General's Office.

19 The Clerk shall also serve a copy of this order on Plaintiff.

20 3. Defendants shall answer the complaint in accordance with the Federal 21 Rules of Civil Procedure.

22 4. In order to expedite the resolution of this case, the Court orders as follows:

23 a. No later than ninety (90) days from the date this order is filed,
24

25 ¹Plaintiff was instructed to provide the location for the named Defendants in the 26 amended complaint. Other than Ayers, he did not do so. The Court assumes that they are 27 located at San Quentin because that appears from Plaintiff's allegations to be where he was 28 located at the time of the events alleged in the amended complaint. If they are located elsewhere, and Plaintiff does not provide the Court with their correct location, the claims against them will be dismissed under Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

1 Defendants shall either file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion,
2 or a notice to the Court that they are of the opinion that this matter cannot be resolved by
3 dispositive motion. The motion shall be supported by adequate factual documentation
4 and shall conform in all respects to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56.

5 Defendants are advised that summary judgment cannot be granted, nor 6 qualified immunity found, if material facts are in dispute. If defendants are of the 7 opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, they shall so
8 inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due.

9 All papers filed with the Court shall be promptly served on the Plaintiff.

10 b. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion, if any, shall be filed with 11 the court and served upon defendants no later than thirty days from the date of service of 12 the motion. Plaintiff must read the attached page headed "NOTICE -- WARNING," 13 which is provided to him pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 953-954 (9th Cir.
14 1998) (en banc), and Klingele v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409, 411-12 (9th Cir. 1988).

15 If defendants file an unenumerated motion to dismiss claiming that plaintiff failed
16 to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a),
17 plaintiff should take note of the attached page headed "NOTICE -- WARNING
18 (EXHAUSTION)." See Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n. 4 (9th Cir. 2003)

19 c. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fifteen (15) days after 20 Plaintiff's opposition is filed.

21 d. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is 22 due. No hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

23 5. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 24 Procedure. No further Court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2) or 25 Local Rule 16 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

26 6. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable extensions will be 27 granted. Any motion for an extension of time must be filed no later than five days prior 28 to the deadline sought to be extended.
