PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Re: Class Action Lawsuit, Enriquez and Colmenero v Interstate Group, LLC, et al United States District Court Case No. 4:11-cv-05155-JSC

Dear Sir or Madam:

This law office represents former TrailersPlus employees Jose Enriquez and Quinn Colmenero in a suit that was filed as a proposed class action suit against Interstate Group. The case has been resolved on an individual ~~is~~ as to Mr. Enriquez and Mr. Colmenero and will not be prosecuted as a class-action. basis

This letter is to notify you that any claims that you might have had as part of the class-action will not be pursued because the case is being dismissed. As a consequence, if you have any complaints regarding your employment with Interstate, you will need to take your own steps to remedy such complaints. Such steps might include communicating with Interstate regarding your complaints, or contacting the California Department of Labor Standards Enforcement (the "DLSE"), regarding your complaints, or filing a claim with DLSE.

The most important point of this letter is to notify you that any rights you might have against Interstate will not be advanced in the above noted lawsuit because it is being dismissed.

Very truly yours,

Robert S. Boulter

cc: Q. Colmenero and J. Enriquez
