STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR LITIGATION INVOLVING PATENTS, HIGHLY SENSITIVE
 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND/OR TRADE SECRETS; [PROPOSED] ORDER

25 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

26 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 27 confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public 28

1 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted.
2 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated 3 Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on 4 all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure 5 and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment 6 under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 7 14.4, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential 8 information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62 set forth the procedures that 9 must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the 10 court to file material under seal.

11 2. DEFINITIONS

12 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 13 information or items under this Order.

14 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 15 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule 16 of Civil Procedure 26(c).

17 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as 18 well as their support staff).

19 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it 20 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY 21 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE 22 CODE”.

23 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 24 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 25 testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or 26 responses to discovery in this matter.

27 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 28 the litigation who (1) has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as

1 a consultant in this action, (2) is not a past or current employee of a Party or of a Party's 2 competitor, and (3) at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or 3 of a Party's competitor.

4 2.7 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Information or 5 Items: extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items," disclosure of which to another 6 Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by 7 less restrictive means.

8 2.8 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" Information or Items: extremely 9 sensitive "Confidential Information or Items" representing computer code and associated 10 comments and revision histories, formulas, engineering specifications, or schematics that define or 11 otherwise describe in detail the algorithms or structure of software or hardware designs, disclosure 12 of which to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could 13 not be avoided by less restrictive means.

14 2.9 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House 15 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

16 2.10 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 17 entity not named as a Party to this action.

18 2.11 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this 19 action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action 20 on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

21 2.12 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 22 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

23 2.13 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery 24 Material in this action.

25 2.14 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services 26 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and 27 organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and 28 subcontractors.

1 2.15 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 2 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or as 3 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.”

4 2.16 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 5 Producing Party.

6 3. SCOPE

7 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material 8 (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) 9 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, 10 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

11 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following 12 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a 13 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a 14 result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public 15 record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to 16 the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained 17 the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any 18 use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

19 4. DURATION

20 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 21 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order 22 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims 23 and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the 24 completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, 25 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to 26 applicable law.

27

1 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

2 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party 3 or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 4 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. To 5 the extent it is practical to do so, the Designating Party must designate for protection only those 6 parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other 7 portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 8 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

9 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 10 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 11 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary 12 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

13 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it designated 14 for protection do not qualify for protection at all or do not qualify for the level of protection 15 initially asserted, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is 16 withdrawing the mistaken designation.

17 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order 18 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, 19 Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so 20 designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

21 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

22 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, 23 but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing 24 Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES 25 ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” to each page that contains protected 26 material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 27 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 28 markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted.

1 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection 2 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material 3 it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 4 material made available for inspection shall be deemed “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 5 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants 6 copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, 7 qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the 8 Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY
9 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE
10 CODE]) to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material 11 on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 12 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each 13 portion, the level of protection being asserted.

14 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 15 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 16 proceeding, all protected testimony and specify the level of protection being asserted. When it is 17 impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection and it 18 appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Designating Party 19 may invoke on the record (before the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding is concluded) a right 20 to have up to 21 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is 21 sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony 22 that are appropriately designated for protection within the 21 days shall be covered by the 23 provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order. Alternatively, a Designating Party may specify, at 24 the deposition or up to 21 days afterwards if that period is properly invoked, that the entire 25 transcript shall be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 26 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

27 Parties shall give the other parties notice if they reasonably expect a deposition, hearing or 28 other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can ensure that only

1 authorized individuals who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
2 (Exhibit A) are present at those proceedings. The use of a document as an Exhibit at a deposition
3 shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
4 – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

5 Transcripts containing Protected Material shall have an obvious legend on the title page 6 that the transcript contains Protected Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all 7 pages (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material and 8 the level of protection being asserted by the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall inform 9 the court reporter of these requirements. Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 10 21-day period for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated 11 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in its entirety unless otherwise 12 agreed. After the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually 13 designated.

14 (b) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any 15 other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 16 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL”, 17 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 18 SOURCE CODE”. If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the 19 Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s) and specify the 20 level of protection being asserted.

21 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 22 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s 23 right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a 24 designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated 25 in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

26 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

27 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 28 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality

1 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 2 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to 3 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 4 original designation is disclosed.

5 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution 6 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis 7 for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written 8 notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this 9 specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in 10 good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other 11 forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In 12 conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality 13 designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the 14 designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to 15 explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage 16 of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes 17 that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely 18 manner.

19 6.3 If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention, the Challenging 20 Party shall file and serve a motion to challenge confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in 21 compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62, if applicable) within 21 days of the 22 initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer 23 process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. The Challenging Party may file a 24 motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, 25 including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any 26 motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration 27 affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the 28 preceding paragraph.

1 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 2 Party. Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 3 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 4 sanctions. All parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to 5 which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

6 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 8 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 9 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to 10 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has 11 been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 15 below (FINAL 12 DISPOSITION).

13 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in 14 a secure manner¹ that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

15 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 16 by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 17 information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

18 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 19 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 20 information for this litigation;

21 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 22 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 23 signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

24 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 25 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment

26 _____
27 ¹ It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to require the Receiving Party to store 28 any electronic Protected Material in password-protected form.

1 and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) and their employees or staff to whom disclosure is 2 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed Exhibit A;

3 (d) the court and its personnel;

4 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and 5 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 6 signed Exhibit A;

7 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 8 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 9 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of 10 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be 11 separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 12 under this Stipulated Protective Order.

13 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 14 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

15 (h) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party.

16 7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” and 17 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” Information or Items. Unless otherwise 18 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 19 disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ 20 EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” only to:

21 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 22 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 23 information for this litigation;

24 (b) Experts of the Receiving Party and their employees or staff (1) to whom 25 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the “Acknowledgment 26 and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in 27 paragraph 7.4(a), below, have been followed;

28 (c) the court and its personnel;

1 (d) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and 2 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have
3 signed Exhibit A;

4 (e) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 5 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

6 (f) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party; and 7 (g) shall not be made available to any person who was or is an employee, agent, 8 officer, director, or consultant of or to the Receiving Party, including Symantec Corporation, 9 Acronis, Inc., or Acronis International GmbH or any predecessors or successors (merged, acquired 10 or otherwise) parents, divisions, subsidiaries, associated organizations, joint ventures, and 11 affiliates thereof.

12 7.4 Procedures for Approving or Objecting to Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 13 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” Information 14 or Items to Experts.

15 (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating Party, 16 a Party that seeks to disclose to an Expert (as defined in this Order) any information or item that 17 has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY 18 CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” pursuant to paragraph 7.3(c) first must make a written 19 request to the Designating Party that (1) identifies the general categories of “HIGHLY 20 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE
21 CODE” information that the Receiving Party seeks permission to disclose to the Expert, (2) sets 22 forth the full name of the Expert and the city and state of his or her primary residence, (3) attaches 23 a copy of the Expert’s current resume, (4) identifies the Expert’s current employer(s), (5) identifies 24 each person or entity for the past 5 years for whom the Expert has provided professional services 25 or from whom the Expert received compensation or funding, including in connection with 26 litigation, (6) identifies all of the Expert’s patents and pending patent applications in which the 27
28

1 Expert is an inventor, assignee, or holds a financial interest; (7) identifies all source code relevant 2 to this litigation in which the Expert holds a financial interest, and (8) identifies any professional 3 services provided by the expert or any of his staff to Symantec, Acronis, Inc., or Acronis 4 International GmbH or any predecessors or successors (merged, acquired or otherwise), parents, 5 divisions, subsidiaries, associated organizations, joint ventures, and affiliates thereof

7 (b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in the preceding 8 respective paragraphs may disclose the subject Protected Material to the identified Expert unless, 9 within 14 days of delivering the request, the Party receives a written objection from the 10 Designating Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which it is based.

11 (c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer with the 12 Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by 13 agreement within seven days of the written objection. If no agreement is reached, the Party 14 seeking to make the disclosure to the Expert may file a motion as provided in Civil Local Rule 7 15 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62, if applicable) seeking 16 permission from the court to do so. Any such motion must describe the circumstances with 17 specificity, set forth in detail the reasons why the disclosure to the Expert is reasonably necessary, 18 assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail, and suggest any additional means that 19 could be used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such motion must be accompanied by a 20 competent declaration describing the parties' efforts to resolve the matter by agreement (i.e., the 21 extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and setting forth the reasons advanced 22 by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.
24

25 In any such proceeding, the Party opposing disclosure to the Expert shall bear the burden 26 of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards proposed) 27 outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Expert.
28

1 8. PROSECUTION BAR

2 Absent written consent from the Producing Party, any individual who receives access to 3 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or any “HIGHLY 4 CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” information shall not be involved in the prosecution of 5 patents or patent applications relating to backup and recovery software, including, without 6 limitation, the patents asserted in this action and any patent or application claiming priority to or 7 otherwise related to the patents asserted in this action, before any foreign or domestic agency, 8 including the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“the Patent Office”). For purposes of 9 this paragraph, “prosecution” includes directly or indirectly drafting, amending, advising, or 10 otherwise affecting the scope or maintenance of patent claims. To avoid any doubt, “prosecution” 11 as used in this paragraph does not include representing a party challenging a patent before a 12 domestic or foreign agency (including, but not limited to, a reissue protest, ex parte reexamination 13 or inter partes reexamination). This Prosecution Bar shall begin when access to “HIGHLY 14 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE 15 CODE” information is first received by the affected individual and shall end two (2) years after 16 final termination of this action.

17 9. SOURCE CODE

18 (a) A Producing Party may designate source code as “HIGHLY 19 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE” if it comprises or includes confidential, proprietary or trade 20 secret source code.

21 (b) Protected Material designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE 22 CODE” shall be subject to all of the protections afforded to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 23 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information, including the Prosecution Bar set forth in Paragraph 24 8, and may be disclosed only to the individuals to whom “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 25 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information may be disclosed.

26 (c) The Receiving Party shall provide five (5) business days’ notice prior to 27 commencing an inspection. The Receiving Party shall restrict its inspection to a reasonable 28 number of days, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., or as otherwise agreed by the parties.

1 (d) A list of names of persons who will view the source code will be provided 2 to the Producing Party in conjunction with any written (including email) notice requesting 3 inspection.

4 (e) Any source code produced in discovery shall be made available for 5 inspection in a format through which it could be reasonably reviewed and searched at an office of 6 the Producing Party's counsel or another mutually agreed upon location. The parties agree to meet 7 and confer in good faith on a location reasonably convenient for both sides, including taking into 8 consideration the location and convenience of each other's experts. The source code shall be 9 made available for inspection on a secured computer in a secured room without Internet access or 10 network access to other computers ("Source Code Computer"), as necessary and appropriate to 11 prevent and protect against any unauthorized copying, transmission, removal or other transfer of 12 any source code outside or away from the computer on which the source code is provided for 13 inspection. The parties agree to meet and confer if more than one Source Code Computer is 14 necessary to maximize the efficiency of the inspection. The Receiving Party shall not copy, 15 remove, or otherwise transfer any portion of the source code onto any recordable media or 16 recordable device. The Producing Party shall be entitled to have a person observe all entrances 17 and exits from the source code viewing room. The Producing Party may also visually monitor the 18 activities of the Receiving Party's representatives during any source code review, but only to 19 ensure that there is no unauthorized recording, copying, or transmission of the source code.

20 (f) The Producing Party shall install such tools or programs that are reasonably 21 necessary to review and search the code produced on the platform produced. The Receiving Party 22 may request that additional review tools and programs be added to the Source Code computer, and 23 the Providing Party may not unreasonably refuse to install such additional tools and programs. If 24 the Receiving Party wants to use other tools or programs, the Receiving Party must provide the 25 software and proof that it is licensed. The Receiving Party's outside counsel and/or expert shall be 26 entitled to take notes relating to the source code but may not copy substantial portions of the 27 source code into the notes. For purposes of this provision, fifteen or more lines of code is 28 "substantial. No copies of all or any portion of the source code may leave the room in which the

1 source code is inspected except as otherwise provided herein. Further, no other written or 2 electronic record of the source code is permitted except as otherwise provided herein.

3 The Producing Party shall allow the Receiving Party to create files on the Source Code 4 Computer as necessary for the Receiving Party's analysis, for example in a separate directory on 5 the Source Code Computer to be established by the Producing Party. The Producing Party agrees 6 that it will not review, analyze, share, distribute, or use the files created by the Receiving Party 7 except as stated herein. Acronis has asserted that such files created by Acronis's representatives 8 will contain work product or other protected information. Acronis does not waive such protection 9 by leaving the files on Symantec's computer or by agreeing to have them reviewed by a third party 10 as stated herein. Without agreeing with that assertion, Symantec acknowledges that such a claim 11 has been made and agrees not to review, analyze, share, distribute, or use the files created by the 12 Receiving Party unless permitted to do so by the Court, and further agrees that Acronis has not 13 waived any protection afforded these files, including due to a neutral third party review or the files 14 location on Symantec's computer. The Producing Party has the right to have a neutral third party 15 ("Neutral Party") review the electronic note files made by the Receiving Party on the Source Code 16 Computer to ensure that the note files created by the Receiving Party are consistent with all other 17 provisions and are subject to and receive the applicable protections conferred by the Protective 18 Order. If the Producing Party elects to have a Neutral Party review the electronic note files made 19 by the Receiving Party, the Receiving Party is not permitted to take those electronic note files with 20 them at the conclusion of the inspection. The parties will immediately meet and confer about the 21 scope and content of the review that is to be conducted by the Neutral Party and on the timing and 22 procedure for making these files available to the Receiving Party.² Both parties reserve the right 23

24 _____
25 ² At a minimum, Symantec has requested that the Neutral Party identify (1) How many pages 26 of notes are contained within electronic notes and files created by the Receiving Party, (2) 27 Excluding attorney notations, how many lines of source code in total are contained in electronic 28 notes and files created by the Receiving Party, and (3) How many segments of source code within the electronic notes and files created by the Receiving Party contain 2 or more lines of code.

1 to raise additional issues regarding the timing and procedure for making these files available to the 2 Receiving Party after the third-party review is complete. All expenses associated with the Neutral 3 Party review shall be paid for by the party requesting the review. The parties may request relief 4 from the Court pursuant to Section 4 of Judge Chen’s Standing Order on Discovery if they are 5 unable to agree on the timing and procedure for making these files available to the Receiving Party 6 and the parameters of the Neutral Party review.

7 (g) Subject to the other provisions of this Protective Order, the Receiving Party 8 may bring with it to the secure offices a cell phone and laptop computer. The Receiving Party is 9 permitted to take notes on the laptop computer but shall not be permitted to include any of the 10 Producing Party’s Source Code or Source Code comments in any such notes. The Receiving Party 11 may include references to the file, function, or object name and line number(s) of code, and such 12 references will not be considered Source Code or Source Code comments. Inclusion of any 13 Source Code or Source Code comments in any such notes constitutes a violation of the protective 14 order. If the Receiving Party represents that the notes on the laptop comply with this provision, 15 such notes are agreed to contain work-product and not be subject to any third-party review.

16 (h) The Producing Party shall produce to the Receiving Party printed copies of 17 requested files contained on the Producing Party's Source Code Computer under the following 18 terms and conditions:

19 (1) The Receiving Party may request, in total, up to 500 pages of hard 20 (non electronic) copies of those portions of source code that it, in good faith, considers 21 necessary to the preparation of its case. For good cause shown, the Receiving Party may 22 request an additional 500 pages of hard (non electronic) copies of those portions of source 23

24 Acronis has already advised that it will agree that the neutral third party may convey to the 25 Producing Party whether or not these note files contain any portion of the produced code that is 14 26 lines or greater in length, as already required by paragraph 9(f). Acronis is prepared to meet and 27 confer re further details as long as no work product information is conveyed without making the 28 showing required by Rule 26(b)(3). Acronis also requested that a “line” of code be defined as a line of actual code, and any lines that contain only code comments or whitespace, but not code, be excluded from the count.

1 code that it, in good faith, considers necessary to the preparation of its case.

2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a receiving Party may not request a hard copy of more than 3 20 consecutive pages of source code absent express permission of the producing Party or 4 an order from the Court. A “page” for the purposes of this limitation will be defined as an 5 8.5 x 11” sheet of paper with 12 point font. This consecutive page limitation will not 6 preclude any Party from seeking additional consecutive pages for good reason. If any 7 dispute arises concerning the number of consecutive pages, the producing Party and 8 receiving Party shall meet and confer in good faith to attempt to resolve this dispute 9 without the Court's involvement. The Producing Party shall provide all such source code 10 in paper form including bates numbers and the label “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - 11 SOURCE CODE.”

12 (2) A request for printed copies of files shall include, on a file-by-file 13 basis, the complete file path associated with each file. If additional information is required 14 to uniquely identify the requested files, then the request shall include, on a file-by-file 15 basis, such additional information;

16 (3) A party may request multiple versions or revisions of the same file, 17 but the requesting party must specify the exact dates or the exact numbers for each version 18 or versions sought. The Producing Party and the Receiving Party shall cooperate in 19 identifying the precise files which are sought;

20 (4) The Producing Party shall have three (3) business days in which to 21 object in writing as to the extent or relevance of the requested printout(s). If no such 22 objection is made, the Producing Party shall produce a copy of the printout(s) to the 23 Reviewing Party pursuant to the terms of Paragraph 7.3. If objection is made, the parties 24 shall meet and confer within three (3) business days in a good faith attempt to resolve the 25 objection. If the objection is not resolved, the Producing Party shall have five (5) business 26 days after the expiration of the meet and confer period (i.e., eight (8) business days from 27 the date of the request) in which to file a motion for relief from production of the 28

1 printout(s) that are the subject of the objection. The printout(s) shall be retained by the 2 Producing Party, and not produced, pending the Court's resolution of the motion.

3 (5) Any copy of a Source Code file (in electronic or paper form) shall 4 be marked and designated as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE," and the 5 Receiving Party must keep the printed copy of Source Code in a locked location to prevent 6 duplication of or unauthorized access to the source code. Any source code designated 7 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE," shall be disclosed and disseminated only 8 to the individuals identified in Paragraph 7.3. The Producing Party shall clearly identify 9 the file path of the underlying file as well as an additional information required to uniquely 10 identify the underlying file on any printed copy of a Source Code file.

11 (i) Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in writing, following 12 each inspection, the Receiving Party's outside counsel and/or experts shall remove all notes, 13 documents, laptops, and all other materials from the room that may contain work product and/or 14 attorney-client privileged information. The Producing Party shall not be responsible for any items 15 left in the room following each inspection session.

16 (j) The Producing Party shall provide to the Receiving Party five copies of 17 hard (non-electronic) copies of source code. No additional copies of hard (non-electronic) copies 18 of source code or portions of source code shall be made without the agreement of the producing 19 Party, regardless of whether such source code was initially produced in hard-copy format or 20 whether such hard copies were made pursuant to the preceding sub-Paragraph. A party may 21 request additional hard copies of portions of the code only as needed for use at depositions, 22 hearings, trial, or court filings. The Receiving Party shall only include such excerpts as are 23 reasonably necessary for the purposes for which such part of the source code is used. To the 24 extent portions of source code are quoted in a Source Code Document, either (1) the entire 25 document will be stamped and treated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE or (2) 26 those pages containing quoted source code will be separately bound, and stamped and treated as 27 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE.

28

1 (k) The Receiving Party shall maintain a log of any individual who has 2 inspected any portion of the source code in electronic or paper form. The log shall include the 3 dates and times of any access, all printed or electronic copies of the source code that are delivered 4 by the Receiving Party to any qualified person and the names of the recipients of copies and 5 locations where the copies are stored. The log shall be provided by the Receiving Party to the 6 Producing Party upon request.

7 (l) The Receiving Party shall maintain all paper copies of any printed portions 8 of the source code and all electronic files that contain source code in a manner that prevents 9 duplication of or unauthorized access to the source code, for example, in a secured, locked area.
10 The Receiving Party shall not create any electronic or other images of the paper copies and shall 11 not convert any of the information contained in the paper copies into any electronic format. All 12 paper copies shall be securely destroyed if they are no longer in use (e.g., unmarked and/or spare 13 copies at the conclusion of a deposition).

14 10. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER 15 LITIGATION

16 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 17 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY
19 CODE” that Party must:

20 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 21 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

22 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 23 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 24 subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated 25 Protective Order; and 26
27
28

1 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 2 the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.³

3 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena
4 or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL”,
5 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
6 SOURCE CODE” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, 7 unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall 8 bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and 9 nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party 10 in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

11 11. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 12 LITIGATION

13 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-14 Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 15 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”. Such 16 information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 17 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 18 prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

19 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce 20 a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement 21 with the Non- Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

- 22 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 23 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with 24 a Non-Party;

25 _____
26 ³ The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this 27 Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its 28 confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued.

1 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 2 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 3 specific description of the information requested; and 4 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-5 Party.

6 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court 7 within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may 8 produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-9 Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its 10 possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a 11 determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the 12 burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

13 12. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 15 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective 16 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 17 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected 18 Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the 19 terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and 20 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21 13. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED 22 MATERIAL

23 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 24 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 25 Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). If 26 information is produced in discovery that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-27 preparation material, the party making the claim may notify any party that received the 28 information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return,

1 sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose 2 the information until the claim is resolved. The Parties may promptly present the information to 3 the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The producing party must preserve the 4 information until the claim is resolved.

5 14. MISCELLANEOUS

6 14.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to 7 seek its modification by the court in the future.

8 14.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective 9 Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 10 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no 11 Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered 12 by this Protective Order.

13 14.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party 14 or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in 15 the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 16 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62. Protected 17 Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the 18 specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62, a 19 sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is 20 privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a 21 Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-22 5(d) and General Order 62 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the Protected 23 Material in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by 24 the court.

25 15. FINAL DISPOSITION

26 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each 27 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
28 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,

1 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 2 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 3 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party)
4 by the 60-day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected 5 Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained 6 any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any 7 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival 8 copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 9 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and 10 consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such 11 archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order 12 as set forth in Section 4.

13 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on [date] in the case of _____ [insert formal name of the case and the number and initials assigned to it by the court]. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of _____ [print or type full address and telephone number] as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.
