13 When a pleading is intended to be applicable to some, but not all, of such actions, the docket 14 number for each individual action to which the document is intended to be applicable, shall 15 appear immediately after the words: “This Document Relates to.”

16 Any other action now pending or hereafter filed in this district that arises out of the same 17 facts and claims as alleged in these related actions shall be consolidated for all purposes as the 18 Court becomes aware of them. The parties shall notify the Court of any other action pending or 19 filed outside this district that may be related to the subject matter of these consolidated actions, if 20 and when they become aware of such actions.

21 Defendants are not required to respond to the complaint in any action consolidated into 22 this action, other than the consolidated complaint. A consolidated complaint shall be filed within 23 45 days of the order appointing lead counsel. The consolidated complaint shall be the operative
