7 v.

8 PLIMUS, INC,

9 Defendant.

Case No. 12-cv-00229-TEH

ORDER VACATING DEFENDANT'S
MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT

11 On January 9, 2014, Defendant Plimus, Inc. ("Plimus") filed a notice of motion and
12 motion for summary judgment along with its opposition to Plaintiff Kimberly Yordy's
13 ("Yordy's") renewed motion for class certification. Plimus requested a hearing date 18
14 days later, on January 27, 2014. This is untimely under Civil Local Rule 7-2 (a), which 15 requires all motions to be noticed not less than 35 days after service of the motion.

16 Furthermore, the Court considers Plimus's motion untimely in light of the schedule
17 adopted in this case. On November 14, 2013, the parties filed a joint stipulated request for 18 a revised case schedule. Docket No. 117. Plimus proposed that the parties brief class
19 certification and summary judgment simultaneously, whereas Yordy argued that summary
20 judgment should be briefed after the Court ruled on her renewed motion for class
21 certification. That same day, the Court entered an order rejecting Plimus's position and 22 adopting Yordy's proposed deadline for dispositive motions: "sixty (60) days following the 23 Court's ruling on Plaintiff's Renewed Motion for Class Certification." Docket No. 118
24 (emphasis added). Although the Court's order may not have been explicit, the Court now
25 clarifies its intention – to the extent Plimus had any uncertainty – to decide class
26 certification prior to summary judgment.

27 Accordingly the Court now VACATES Plimus's motion for summary judgment.
28 Only those portions of Plimus's brief relating to class certification will be considered.

Plimus may renew its motion for summary judgment, if appropriate, after the Court rules on Yordy's renewed motion for class certification, and no later than sixty (60) days following such a ruling.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
