Case No. C12-00454 JCS

STIPULATIONS REGARDING EVIDENCE

1 WHEREAS, the parties have met and conferred in an effort to streamline discovery and the 2 presentation of evidence at summary judgment and/or trial in the present action, and the parties have 3 identified documents the authenticity of which is not disputed,

4 THEREFORE, the parties stipulate as follows:

5 1. All documents listed in Exhibit A are authentic. All documents listed in Exhibit A that 6 were prepared by public employees, except for pleadings, meet the requirements of Federal Rule of 7 Evidence 803(6).

8 2. All court records, pleadings, and transcripts in the proceedings People v. Paul Green,
9 S.F. Superior Court Case No. 140-303 and People v. Caramad Conley, S.F. Superior Court Case No.
10 153-756, are judicially noticeable as evidence of what occurred during those proceedings under 11 Federal Rule of Evidence 201. The parties are not stipulating or agreeing to the truth of any statement
12 contained within such court records, pleadings or transcripts, and reserve all arguments for and against 13 admissibility for the truth of the matters stated.

14 3. Copies of court records, pleadings, and transcripts shall be treated as authentic without 15 any need for certification.

16 4. For all such documents listed above, the parties further stipulate that neither party need 17 produce a qualified witness to testify or declare as to the identity, time, and mode of preparation of the 18 documents. By entering this stipulation, neither side waives its right to object to the admissibility of 19 any particular document listed above or its contents on other grounds. This includes but is not limited
20 to the following: the document contains hearsay within hearsay or the document and its contents are 21 not relevant to the issues to be tried in the case.

22 5. All depositions taken in the proceeding Caramad Conley v. Mike Knowles, San 23 Francisco Superior Court Writ No. 5861, and all testimony given in the evidentiary hearing in that 24 proceeding, shall be usable in the present action as if they were depositions given in the present action.
