STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
 TO INCREASE PAGE LIMITS
 ASSOCIATED WITH DEFENDANTS'
 ANTICIPATED MOTION TO DISMISS

22 Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-4(b) and 7-12, and for good cause shown, the parties stipulate
 23 and request that this Court increase the page limits on motions set by ¶ 5 of its Standing Orders.

24 See ECF No. 13-2. In support of this stipulation, the parties state as follows:

- 25 1. Plaintiffs' complaint raises separate allegations about five federally-recognized Indian 26 tribes. See Compl., ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 24-52. Additionally, plaintiffs' complaint brings 27 nine separate causes of action against defendants, arising under the: (i) Indian Self-28

1 Determination and Education Assistance Act (“ISDA”), 25 U.S.C. §§ 450 et
2 seq.; (ii) Administrative Procedures Act (“APA”), 5 U.S.C. §§ 553 & 702; (iii) equal
3 protection component of the Fifth Amendment; and (iv) Indian Trust doctrine. See
4 Compl. ¶¶ 55-113.

- 5 2. Pursuant to a stipulation with proposed order, defendants’ response to plaintiffs’
6 complaint is due May 23, 2012. See ECF No. 14. In addition to filing an answer to 7 some of plaintiffs’ complaint, defendants anticipate moving to dismiss some plaintiffs 8 and to dismiss several causes of action of the remaining plaintiffs.
- 9 3. This Court’s Standing Orders limits non-summary judgment motions to 15 pages in 10 length, exclusive of title pages, indexes of cases, table of contents, exhibits, affidavits,
11 and summaries of argument, if required. See ECF No. 13-2, ¶ 5. The Civil Local 12 Rules limit briefs or memoranda of points and authorities to no more than 25 pages in 13 length but allow parties to request the Court to increase the page limits. See Civil L.R.
14 7-4(b).
- 15 4. In light of the factual and legal complexity of each of the five plaintiff’s allegations 16 and their nine causes of action, and in order to give the parties the ability to 17 adequately support each of their arguments in support of (or in opposition to)
18 defendants’ anticipated motion to dismiss, the parties respectfully request that this 19 Court allow defendants to file a memorandum in support of their motion and 20 plaintiffs to file a memorandum in support of their opposition up to 25 page in length, 21 exclusive of title pages, indexes of cases, table of contents, exhibits, affidavits, and 22 summaries of argument. See Civil L.R. 7-4(b). The parties believe that this increase 23 will promote judicial economy.

24 Accordingly, for good cause shown, this Court should grant the parties’ request to file
25 memoranda associated with defendants’ anticipated motion to dismiss of up to 25 pages in 26 length, exclusive of title pages, indexes of cases, table of contents, exhibits, affidavits, and 27 summaries of argument, if required.

Respectfully Submitted,
