IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PERFECT 10, INC.,

Plaintiff,

No. C 12-01521 WHA

v.

YANDEX N.V., a Netherlands limited liability company; YANDEX INC., a Delaware corporation; and YANDEX LLC, a Russian limited liability company, Defendants.

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO SEAL

On July 24, plaintiff Perfect 10 filed an administrative motion to seal Perfect 10’s reply brief to motion for sanctions and exhibit 1 to the declaration of Eric J. Bennet (Dkt. No. 205).

The motion is DENIED.

Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) states that within seven days of filing an administrative motion, the designating party “must file with the Court and serve a declaration establishing that the designated information is sealable, and must lodge a narrowly tailored proposed sealing order, or must withdraw the designation of confidentiality.” Seven days have come and gone and Yandex — the designating party — has not filed and served a declaration.

Pursuant to civil local rule 79-5(d), therefore, Perfect 10’s reply and exhibit 1 to the declaration of Eric J. Bennet shall become part of the public record.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 6, 2013.

WILLIAM ALSUP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
