On February 14, 2014, the Court ordered supplemental briefing on Plaintiff’s request for voluntary dismissal without directing notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.1(c). ECF No. 37. The Court subsequently altered the briefing schedule to permit Defendants to submit a brief as well. ECF No. 40.

Although the parties have not briefed the issue, the Court notes that there is a danger that with the dismissal of this suit, the statute of limitations on the remaining breach of duty claims may have run. See Compl. ¶ 38 (noting that the “Bylaw was . . . adopted on September 29, 2010”); In re Tyson Foods, Inc., 919 A. 2d 563, 584 (Del. Ch. 2007) (Pursuant to 10 Del. C. § 8106 “A three-year statute of limitations applies to breaches of fiduciary duty . . . The statute of limitations begins to run at the time that the cause of action accrues, which is generally when there has been a harmful act by a defendant.”).

Because the statute of limitations bears directly on the question of prejudice to the derivative claim, the parties are ORDERED to submit additional briefing. Plaintiff shall file a
