vs.
MURRAY STEVEN WEBER, dba WEBER
TRACTOR SERVICE,
Defendant.

Plaintiffs hereby provide this abbreviated case management conference statement.

Plaintiffs and Defendant, in both consolidated cases, reached a settlement of this action. The parties have finalized the settlement documents. It was anticipated that by August 30, 212, Defendants would have complied with the fully executed settlement agreement and this case would be dismissed. However, Defendants requested two extra weeks to comply with the fully executed settlement documents. Plaintiffs granted the request since the settlement agreement was fully executed.

Pursuant to the settlement agreement, defendants were to make monthly installment payments. Upon receipt of the first installment payment, Plaintiffs would dismiss this case without prejudice. Upon receipt of the final installment payment, Plaintiffs would dismiss this case with prejudice. Even after providing Defendants with a further extension of time, Defendants failed to make any installment payment and are in default of the settlement agreement.

Plaintiffs advised defendants that they are in default of the settlement agreement. Defendants were given ten (10) days to cure the default, pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement. Defendants failed to cure the default.

The settlement agreement also contains a stipulation for entry of judgment should defendants be in default and fail to cure the default. Plaintiffs will file a motion for entry of judgment within the next 30 days. This case will not proceed to litigation.
