15 DECLARATION OF PAUL GLUSMAN

16 I, Paul Glusman, declare that:

17 1. I am the attorney for plaintiff Gregory Pilling in this action.

18 2. The extension of time is needed because the motion papers were

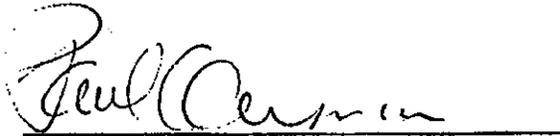

19 mailed but not served electronically on my office on June 7, 2012, I did not
20 receive them until coming to my office on June 11, 2012. An opposition is now
21 due on June 21, 2012, although the motion will not be heard until July 20, 2012.
22 The press of business in my office, plus the need to be out of the office for three 23 days the week of June 18, 2012, will make it extremely difficult to research and 24 respond to the motion unless this extension is granted.

3. I previously have granted defendant BART an extension of 10 days to respond to the complaint.

4. There will be no effect on the schedule for the case because the hearing date will not be changed.

I have personal knowledge of the foregoing facts and declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. This declaration is signed in Berkeley, California on June 13, 2012.
