

Defendants to file their responsive pleading by no later than 14 days after service of the Order

22 dated November 5, 2012. Notwithstanding this Order, on November 13, 2012, Plaintiff filed a motion for leave to file a sixth amended complaint, which is scheduled to be heard on February 23

24 22, 2013. Under the local rules, Defendants' opposition would have been due on or about 25 December 2, 2012. Defendants have not opposed the motion.

26 On January 16, 2013, the Court denied Plaintiffs' motion for leave to file a sixth 27 amended complaint, on the basis that the Court had ordered that the Fifth Amended Complaint 28 would be the LAST iteration of the Complaint. (Docket No. 61.) In that Order, the Court also Ordered Plaintiff to show cause why the Court should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute, and it directed Plaintiff to file a response to the Order to Show Cause by February 1, 2013. The Court also noted that if Plaintiff sought to file a belated opposition brief to Defendants' motion, he must show good cause for his request and must submit a proposed opposition brief with that request. The Court also ordered that any such request would also be due by no later than February 1, 2013.

On January 30, 2013, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal of the Court's Order dated January 16, 2013, as well as several orders that the Court issued earlier in the case. Plaintiff also filed his response to the Order to Show Cause, setting forth his reasons why the Court should not dismiss the case for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff did not seek leave to file a belated opposition to the pending motion to dismiss.

The Court shall defer ruling on Plaintiff's response to the Order to Show Cause until the United States Court of Appeals has addressed Plaintiff's appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
