STATEMENT OF ACTION

1. This is an action for copyright infringement brought by Muench Photography, Inc., the owner of the copyrights to the photographs described hereafter and originally licensed for limited use to McGraw-Hill, against Defendants for uses of Muench’s photographs without its authority or permission.

PARTIES

2. Muench is a California corporation with its principal place of business located in Goleta, California. Muench is the owner of photographs created by David Muench and Marc Muench, highly regarded professional photographers.

3. McGraw-Hill is a publisher of educational textbooks and a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business in New York, New York. McGraw-Hill sells and distributes textbooks via its employees and agents in the Northern District of California and throughout the United States, including the publications and ancillary materials containing Plaintiff’s photographs.

4. John Doe Printers 1-10 are the printers of some or all of the publications in suit and ancillary materials, whose identities are known to McGraw-Hill but unknown to Plaintiff.

JURISDICTION

5. This is an action for injunctive relief, statutory damages, monetary damages and interest under the copyright laws of the United States. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 United States Code §§ 1331 (federal question) and 1338 (copyright).

VENUE

6. Venue is appropriate in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(a) and (b) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1400(a).

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

1
2 7. Muench is the owner of the copyrights to all of the attached photographic images
3 depicted in Exhibit 1 (“the Photographs”).

4 8. The Photographs have been registered with the United States Copyright Office.

5 9. McGraw-Hill used the Photographs in various educational publications as set forth
6 herein, initially obtaining the images from Corbis Corporation, a stock photography agency acting
7 on Muench’s behalf.

8 10. Between 2001 and 2009, in response to permission requests from McGraw-Hill,
9 Corbis sold McGraw-Hill limited licenses to use copies of the Photographs in numerous
10 educational publications. The licenses Corbis granted McGraw-Hill were expressly limited by 11 number of copies, distribution area, image size, language, duration and/or media (print or 12 electronic) as set forth in Exhibit 1.

13 11. At the time McGraw-Hill represented to Corbis in its permission requests that it
14 needed specified, limited licenses to use the Photographs, McGraw-Hill often knew its actual uses
15 under the licenses would exceed the usage rights it was requesting and paying for.

16 12. McGraw-Hill intended by its misrepresentations to obtain access to the Photographs
17 at a lower cost than it would have paid had it been honest in its dealings and to conceal the 18 copyright infringements that followed. McGraw-Hill was successful and achieved both these 19 wrongful ends.

20 13. Upon information and belief, McGraw-Hill exceeded the permitted uses under the 21 terms of the limited licenses listed in Exhibit 1.

22 14. Upon information and belief, McGraw-Hill used the Photographs without any 23 permission in publications not yet identified.

24 15. When McGraw-Hill copied and distributed the Photographs without authorization,
25 McGraw-Hill had a duty in equity and good conscience to disclose those uses. This is especially
26 so because McGraw-Hill knew precisely when its uses of the Photographs exceeded the applicable
27

1 license limitations, but Corbis and Muench had no such knowledge nor any reason to assume
2 McGraw-Hill was being deceitful in the uses it was making of the Photographs.

3 16. On April 30, 2012 Muench asked McGraw-Hill to disclose its uses of the 4 Photographs, but McGraw-Hill did not timely respond to this request.

5 17. Upon information and belief, John Doe Printers 1-10 are the printers of the 6 publications in suit; they printed copies in excess of the licenses, and they earned profits from such 7 printings.

8 18. The exhibit attached hereto is incorporated into this complaint by this reference.

9 COUNT I

10 COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT AGAINST MCGRAW-HILL

11 19. Muench incorporates herein by this reference each and every allegation contained in 12 the paragraphs set forth above.

13 20. The foregoing acts of McGraw-Hill constitute direct, contributory and/or vicarious
14 infringements of Muench's copyrights in the Photographs in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 501 et seq.

15 21. Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of McGraw-Hill's unauthorized use of the 16 Photographs.

17 COUNT II

18 COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT AGAINST JOHN DOE PRINTERS 1-10

19 22. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference each and every allegation contained in 20 the paragraphs set forth above.

21 23. The foregoing acts of John Doe Printers 1-10 in printing the publications identified
22 in Exhibit 1 constitute direct, contributory and/or vicarious infringements of Plaintiff's copyrights
23 in the Photographs in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 501 et seq.

24 24. Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of the unauthorized printing of the 25 Photographs by John Doe Printers 1-10.

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the following:

2 1. A permanent injunction against Defendants and anyone working in concert with
3 them from copying, displaying, distributing, selling or offering to sell Plaintiff's Photographs
4 described in this Complaint and Plaintiff's photographs not included in suit.

5 2. As permitted under 17 U.S.C. § 503, impoundment of all copies of Plaintiff's
6 Photographs used in violation of Plaintiff's exclusive copyrights as well as all related records and
7 documents and, at final judgment, destruction or other reasonable disposition of the unlawfully
8 used Photographs, including digital files and any other means by which they could be used again
9 by Defendants without Plaintiff's authorization.

10 3. An award of Plaintiff's actual damages and all profits derived from the 11 unauthorized use of Plaintiff's Photographs or, where applicable and at Plaintiff's election,
12 statutory damages.

13 4. An award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees.

14 5. An award of Plaintiff's court costs, expert witness fees, interest and all other 15 amounts authorized under law.

16 6. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

17 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

18 Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues permitted by law.
