ORDER RE: JOINT STATEMENT ON DISCOVERY ISSUES

Re: Dkt. No. 94

On September 5, 2014, the last day to file letter briefs, the parties filed a joint statement on discovery issues in which plaintiff Gardensensor “seeks an order directing that by September 12, 2014, Defendant: (i) produce employees’ performance evaluations for the PlantSmart project; (ii) respond to Plaintiff’s Interrogatories Nos. 1, 5, 6, 12-15, and 17; (iii) confirm that documents cannot be retrieved from Ansell’s assistant’s deleted files; (iv) produce unredacted versions of all documents containing improper redactions; (v) confirm that Defendant has otherwise produced all responsive documents in its possession; and (vi) provide any further relief that the Court deems proper.” Dkt. No. 94.

By September 9, 2014, Gardensensor must file a copy of all discovery requests for which it is seeking to compel further responses or document production in the pending

Case No. 12-cv-03922 NC
ORDER RE: JOINT STATEMENT
ON DISCOVERY ISSUES

1 discovery letter, along with all pertinent responses and objections by Black & Decker, and
2 any meet and confer letters and emails, or a declaration from counsel setting forth meet and
3 confer communications, that are necessary to understand the parties' current positions on
4 each of the issues raised. In addition, as to requests (iv) and (v) above, if Gardensor
5 contends that certain documents have been improperly redacted, or that Black & Decker's
6 production in response to any documents requests is insufficient, Gardensor must 7 identify the improperly redacted documents and the document requests at issue. By the 8 same deadline, Gardensor must also file a detailed proposed order setting forth the relief
9 sought.
