JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT
 STATEMENT; REQUEST TO TAKE THE MARCH 14, 2013
 CMC OFF CALENDAR; AND
 ORDER TO RESCHEDULE
 THE CMC ON JUNE 13, 2013

Date: March 14, 2013
 Time: 10:00 a.m.
 Place: Courtroom B, 15th Floor

1 Pursuant to the Court's standing order, the parties submit the following joint case
2 management statement and request to take the March 14, 2013 CMC off calendar and to reschedule
3 it in three months, on June 13, 2013:

4 1. Jurisdiction and Service

5 This is a judicial forfeiture action. The Court has jurisdiction over defendant $49,000 under 6 21 U.S.C. § 881(a)(6).

7 The United States provided general notice of this action by publication and direct notice to 8 Joseph Marasco and his counsel, Sara Rief, as required by Supplemental Rule G(4). See Supp. R.
9 for Admir. or Maritime Claims and Asset Forf. Actions G(4); Certificate of Service, served August
10 2, 2012; Declaration of Publication, filed August 31, 2012. Joseph Marasco filed a timely claim and 11 answer. See Defendant's [sic] Claim of Interest in Approximately $49,000 in United States
12 Currency, filed August 28, 2012; Answer of Claimant to Verified Complaint for Forfeiture, etc., filed
13 September 17, 2012.

14 2. Facts

15 The United States set forth facts in its verified complaint involving the traffic stop of the 16 vehicle in which claimant was a passenger and which it contends set forth probable cause based on 17 a totality of the circumstances that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture.

18 Claimant Marasco claims that defendant $49,000 is his personal savings and not subject to 19 forfeiture. See Answer, supra.

20 3. Legal Issues

21 a. Whether claimant Marasco has standing to assert a claim of ownership.

22 b. Whether the United States can establish by a preponderance of the evidence that 23 defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture because it is connected to illegal drug trafficking activities.

24 c. If the United States establishes that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture,
25 whether claimant Marasco can establish by a preponderance of the evidence any of the affirmative
26 defenses asserted in the answer to the complaint.

27 4. Motions

28 No motions are pending. After the close of discovery, the United States will likely file a

1 motion for summary judgment that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture based on a totality of
2 the circumstances.

3 5. Amendment of Pleadings

4 The parties have no current plans to amend the pleadings.

5 6. Evidence Preservation

6 The United States will preserve all documents, information or other evidence that it has been
7 provided in connection with this adopted case. Claimant will preserve all documents, information
8 or other evidence which he has in connection with this adopted case.

9 7. Disclosures

10 No initial disclosures are required in civil forfeiture actions. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(B)(ii).

11 8. Discovery

12 The United States has propounded Special Interrogatories pursuant to Rule G(6) which 13 explore the relationship of claimant to defendant $49,000. Supp. R. for Admir. or Maritime Claims
14 and Asset Forf. Actions G(6). Although claimant has responded, the parties are discussing whether 15 claimant needs to supplement. The United States has also propounded a First Set of Interrogatories
16 and Requests for Production of Documents as well as a Request for Admissions to which claimant
17 must respond at the end of March. In addition, after receiving written responses, the United States
18 plans to take the depositions of claimant and his witnesses, including his father and brother.

19 Claimant Marasco has propounded document requests, and may also propound
20 interrogatories and requests for admissions. The United States has to respond to the document
21 requests at the end of March. Claimant plans to take the deposition of officers involved in this 22 matter.

23 9. Class Actions

24 Not Applicable.

25 10. Related Cases

26 The parties are unaware of any related cases or proceedings pending before another judge of 27 this court, or before another court, or administrative body.

28 ///

1 11. Relief

2 The United States seeks to forfeit defendant $49,000. Claimant Marasco seeks the return of 3 defendant $49,000.

4 12. Settlement and ADR

5 This is a civil law enforcement action. Although the United States has set forth evidence on 6 which it concludes that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture, the United States has not had the 7 opportunity yet to discover the basis of claimant's claim that defendant $49,000 is not subject to 8 forfeiture. Thus, ADR at this juncture is premature.

9 13. Consent to Magistrate Judge for all Purposes

10 By signing this Joint Case Management Statement previously filed, the parties consented to 11 having this case handled by a Magistrate Judge with a direct appeal to the Ninth Circuit.

12 14. Other References

13 Claimant Marasco properly demanded a jury trial in his Answer.

14 15. Narrowing of Issues

15 It is premature to determine whether issues can be narrowed by agreement or motion before
16 the parties engage in discovery.

17 16. Expedited Trial Procedure

18 Not applicable.

19 17. Scheduling

20 The parties suggest that the Court schedule a case management conference in three months,
21 after the parties have had the opportunity to obtain responses to the pending discovery requests.

22 18. Trial

23 The parties agree that this matter does not appear to be complex and estimate that, if it ever
24 reaches trial, the case will take no longer than 5 trial days. Claimant has has demanded a jury trial.

25 19. Disclosure of Non-Party Interested Entities or Persons

26 The United States is exempt from the requirement in Civil Local Rule 3-16 to file a
27 "Certification of Interested Entities or Persons." Claimant Marasco agrees to file the required
28 Certification in the next 30 days.

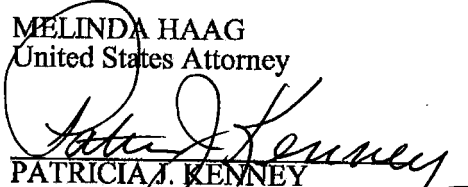

1 20. Other Matters

2 The parties believe the case is progressing apace and that a case management conference on
3 March 14, 2013 is unnecessary. If the Court agrees, the parties request the Court to take the March
4 14, 2013 CMC off calendar and reschedule it for June 13, 2013. Fed. R. Civ. P. 1.
