JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT
 STATEMENT AND ORDER
 Date: June 13, 2013
 Time: 10:00 a.m.
 Place: Courtroom B, 15th Floor

28

1 Pursuant to the March 6, 2013 order, the parties submit this joint case management statement:

2 1. Jurisdiction and Service

3 This is a judicial forfeiture action. The Court has jurisdiction over defendant $49,000 under 4 21 U.S.C. § 881(a)(6).

5 The United States provided general notice of this action by publication and direct notice to 6 Joseph Marasco and his counsel, Sara Rief, as required by Supplemental Rule G(4). See Supp. R.
7 for Admir. or Maritime Claims and Asset Forf. Actions G(4); Certificate of Service, served August 8 2, 2012; Declaration of Publication, filed August 31, 2012. Joseph Marasco filed a timely claim and 9 answer. See Defendant's [sic] Claim of Interest in Approximately $49,000 in United States
10 Currency, filed August 28, 2012; Answer of Claimant to Verified Complaint for Forfeiture, etc., filed 11 September 17, 2012.

12 2. Facts

13 The United States set forth facts in its verified complaint involving the traffic stop of the 14 vehicle in which claimant was a passenger and which it contends set forth probable cause based on 15 a totality of the circumstances that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture.

16 Claimant Marasco claims that defendant $49,000 is his personal savings and not subject to 17 forfeiture. See Answer, supra.

18 3. Legal Issues

19 a. Whether claimant Marasco has standing to assert a claim of ownership.

20 b. Whether the United States can establish by a preponderance of the evidence that 21 defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture because it is connected to illegal drug trafficking activities.

22 c. If the United States establishes that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture,
23 whether claimant Marasco can establish by a preponderance of the evidence any of the affirmative 24 defenses asserted in the answer to the complaint.

25 4. Motions

26 No motions are pending. After the close of discovery, the United States will likely file a 27 motion for summary judgment that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture based on a totality of 28 the circumstances.

1           5.     Amendment of Pleadings

2           The parties have no current plans to amend the pleadings.

3           6.     Evidence Preservation

4           The United States will preserve all documents, information or other evidence that it has been 5 provided in connection with this adopted case. Claimant will preserve all documents, information 6 or other evidence which he has in connection with this adopted case.

7           7.     Disclosures

8           No initial disclosures are required in civil forfeiture actions. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(B)(ii).

9           8.     Discovery *Discovery taken to date, if any, the scope of anticipated discovery, any proposed 10 limitations or modifications of the discovery rules, a brief report on whether the parties have 11 considered entering into a stipulated e-discovery order, a proposed discovery plan pursuant to Fed.
12 R. Civ. P. 26(f), and any identified discovery disputes.*

13           Discovery of the United States & Discovery Dispute

14           On March 6, 2013, the parties set forth a discovery plan in the Joint Case Management 15 Statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f).

16           The United States propounded Special Interrogatories pursuant to Rule G(6) which explore 17 the relationship of claimant to defendant $49,000. Supp. R. for Admir. or Maritime Claims and 18 Asset Forf. Actions G(6). Although claimant has responded, the United States considers some of 19 the responses as insufficient and will discuss with claimant's counsel its reasons.

20           Although the United States served interrogatories and document requests, claimant has failed 21 to make required discovery and the United States requests the Court to enter an order to deal with 22 that failure. On March 1, 2013, the United States propounded a First Set of Interrogatories and 23 Requests for Production of Documents and a Request for Admissions to which responses were due 24 on April 3, 2013. On May 14, 2013, the United States sent an email to counsel for claimant because 25 claimant had not responded. On May 20, 2013, claimant responded to the Request for Admissions.
26 To date, however, claimant has not responded to any of the interrogatories or requests for documents 27 and has not provided any date by which claimant agrees to respond.

28           Depending on claimant's responses to its written discovery, the United States may want to take additional written discovery, subpoena documents from third parties or proceed with depositions

1 of third parties, including claimant's brother and father, and of claimant. The United States believes 2 that the brother lives in San Diego and that the father lives in Wisconsin. Without the benefit of 3 discovery, it is difficult to state how the United States will proceed.

4 Parties' Stipulation to Resolve the Discovery Dispute

5 To resolve this discovery dispute and because claimant lives in Wisconsin which makes 6 coordination with his counsel more difficult, the parties have agreed that the Court enter a case 7 management order in which claimant's right to object to the interrogatories and requests for 8 production of documents served March 1, 2013 is waived and which requires claimant to fully 9 respond to those interrogatories and requests for production of documents on or before July 8, 2013.
10 The government reserves its right to take appropriate action for the failure of claimant to timely 11 respond to its first request for admissions.

12 Discovery of Claimant

13 Claimant propounded document requests. The United States timely responded on March 26, 14 2013. Claimant may want to take additional written discovery. Claimant plans to take the 15 deposition of officers involved in this matter.

16 9. Class Actions

17 Not Applicable.

18 10. Related Cases

19 The parties are unaware of any related cases or proceedings pending before another judge of 20 this court, or before another court, or administrative body.

21 11. Relief

22 The United States seeks to forfeit defendant $49,000. Claimant Marasco seeks the return of 23 defendant $49,000.

24 12. Settlement and ADR

25 This is a civil law enforcement action. Although the United States has set forth evidence on 26 which it concludes that defendant $49,000 is subject to forfeiture, the United States has not had the 27 opportunity yet to discover the basis of claimant's claim that defendant $49,000 is not subject to 28 forfeiture. Thus, ADR at this juncture is premature.

1           13.    Consent to Magistrate Judge for all Purposes

2           By signing the joint case management statements in this case, the parties have agreed
3 expressly in writing to have this Magistrate Judge handle the instant case with a direct appeal, 4 if any, to the Ninth Circuit. See Joint Case Management Statements, filed October 26, 2012 and 5 March 6, 2012, Item 13. If the Court prefers the parties to file the form consent form to have this 6 Magistrate Judge handle the instant case, the parties are willing to do so.

7           14.    Other References

8           Claimant Marasco properly demanded a jury trial in his Answer.

9           15.    Narrowing of Issues

10          It is premature to determine whether issues can be narrowed by agreement or motion before 11 the parties engage in discovery.

12          16.    Expedited Trial Procedure

13          Not applicable.

14          17.    Scheduling

15          The United States requests the Court to set a deadline for claimant providing responses to 16 the outstanding interrogatories and requests for documents. After the United States reviews those 17 responses, it hopes to be in a position to better plan the remaining discovery it will need, including 18 depositions. The parties suggest that the Court schedule a case management conference in three 19 months.

20          18.    Trial

21          The parties agree that this matter does not appear to be complex and estimate that, if it ever 22 reaches trial, the case will take no longer than 5 trial days. Claimant has demanded a jury trial.

23          19.    Disclosure of Non-Party Interested Entities or Persons

24          The United States is exempt from the requirement in Civil Local Rule 3-16 to file a 25 “Certification of Interested Entities or Persons.” Although claimant previously agreed to file the 26 required Certification within 30 days of having filed the Joint Case Management Statements which 27 the parties filed on October 26, 2012 and the March 6, 2013, claimant has failed to do so.

15                                   CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

16           UPON CONSIDERATION OF the parties' stipulation for resolution of the discovery 17 dispute involved in claimant's failure to respond to the interrogatories and requests for 18 documents served on him on March 1, 201 which is described above, the entire record and for 19 good cause shown, it is by the Court on this 5th day of June, 2013,

20           ORDERED that claimant has waived his right to object to any of the government's 21 interrogatories and requests for production of documents served on March 1, 2013, and that 22 claimant will respond to all the interrogatories and requests for production of documents on or 23 before July 8, 2103; and it is further

24           ORDERED that a case management conference is scheduled for August 29, 2013 at 25 10:00 a.m. and that the parties are to file a joint case management statement on or before August 26 22, 2013.
