25
26 Plaintiff/Counter-defendant NATIONWIDE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY
27 (hereinafter "Nationwide") and Defendants/Cross-claimants DONALD V. RYAN and 28 BARBARA RYAN ("the Ryans"), and collectively referred to hereinafter as "the Parties," by and

1 through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate as follows:

2 RECITALS

3 1. The Parties, by and through their respective counsel, continue to work together to 4 accomplish necessary discovery.

5 2. As the Parties have engaged in discovery, counsel for the Parties have cooperated
6 with one another in the identification of witnesses and to make those witnesses available for 7 deposition. The identity of other witnesses, whose involvement in the pertinent events underlying 8 this action were unknown to the Parties and their counsel, have been disclosed during various 9 depositions counsel have conducted.

10 3. However, counsel for the Parties disputed the scope of certain discovery and, after 11 meeting and conferring in an effort to resolve the dispute informally, enlisted the assistance of the 12 Court by the filing of a joint letter-brief outlining the dispute and the Parties' respective positions.
13 On November 7, 2013, counsel for the Parties appeared before the Honorable Kandis A.
14 Westmore, Magistrate Judge, and presented their arguments with respect to the dispute.

15 4. On November 12, 2013, Magistrate Judge Westmore issued her decision granting 16 the Ryans' request to obtain the deposition of certain Nationwide personnel, one of whom is 17 identified and two of whom must be designated by Nationwide as the "person most 18 knowledgeable" about certain subject; she also order Nationwide to produce certain documents.
19 She denied the Ryans' request to obtain other documents. In her order, Judge Westmore directed 20 Nationwide to comply with the order by December 3, 2013.

21 5. Nationwide will designate the "persons most knowledgeable" as ordered and will 22 make them, as well as the person already identified, available for deposition as expeditiously as 23 possible. It is not known whether the persons designated as "most knowledgeable" can be made
24 available by December 3, though counsel are cooperating with each other to accomplish those 25 depositions as soon as possible.

26 6. The Parties and their counsel further recognize that the Parties' experts' analyses 27 and opinions may be affected by the deposition testimony of the persons to be deposed pursuant to 28 Judge Westmore's order. Given the upcoming Thanksgiving and the December holidays, the

1 Parties, by and through their counsel, believe it advisable that certain adjustments be made in the 2 Court's scheduling order.

3 7. The Parties and their counsel wish to stress to the Court that the present
4 circumstances of this litigation are the not result of dilatory conduct; to the contrary, they have
5 been diligent in pursuing discovery so as to make a full presentation of the case at trial. Thus,
6 counsel have worked together to develop a reasonable schedule of events that will maintain the 7 progress of this litigation and allow the Parties to accomplish all necessary discovery.

8 NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties, by and through their respective counsel of record, do
9 hereby stipulate as follows as request that the Court issue an order in accordance therewith:

10 STIPULATION

11 1. The Parties, by and through their respective counsel, request that the Court revise 12 the previously-issued Scheduling Order as follows:

25 2. If the Court is unable to accommodate the Parties' requested revisions to the 26 Scheduling Order, the Parties request that the Court schedule a case management conference so
27 that other adjustments may be discussed and, with the Court's approval, made in the Scheduling
28 Order.
