IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GARY CASSANO,

Plaintiff,

v.

M. JOHNSON and W. ROGERS,

Defendants.

No. C 12-05144 WHA

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT;
VACATING HEARING; AND REQUESTING STATUS REPORT

This is a Section 1983 action alleging violations of plaintiff Gary Cassano's Eighth Amendment rights. Cassano is a California state prison inmate who alleges that defendant M. Johnson, a non-incarcerated kitchen employee, kicked a steel kitchen door that hit Cassano in the head. Cassano further alleges that defendant W. Rogers, a supervising cook at Cassano's correctional facility, failed to separate and protect him from Johnson.

Now, Rogers seeks summary judgment on Cassano's remaining claim as to him — that Rogers was deliberately indifferent to Cassano's safety (Dkt. No. 57). In response, Cassano's counsel have filed a statement of non-opposition: "Based upon Babcock vs. White, 102 F.3d 267 (7th Cir. 1996), [p]laintiff Gary Cassano does not oppose W. Roger's Motion for Summary Judgment" (Dkt. No. 66). Rogers' motion for summary judgment is therefore GRANTED. The hearing previously set for November 20, 2014, is hereby VACATED.

This leaves Johnson as the remaining defendant here. As such, Johnson's counsel will submit a status report indicating whether his case can be resolved by summary judgment or by some other dispositive motion. This status report is due by 4 PM ON NOVEMBER 18, 2014.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 4, 2014.
