1 2 3 4 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 5 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 6 7 MICHELLE LOU, MARSHA BEER, No. C 12-05409 WHA SIMON NIM, and JESUAN RUIZ 8 RODRIGUEZ, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, 9 Plaintiffs, 10 v. 11 MA LABORATORIES, INC., ABRAHAM ORDER PERMITTING RESPONSE TO 12 MA, CHRISTINE RAO, and CHRISTY PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO YEE, RECONSIDER THE JANUARY 8 13 ORDER Defendants. 14 15 On February 27, the parties appeared for a status conference. In light of the unreasonable 16 position defendants took regarding the six FLSA opt-in plaintiffs, the Court permitted plaintiffs 17 to file a motion for reconsideration of the January 8 omnibus order regarding certification. After 18 the parties appeared for an oral argument on plaintiffs' motion regarding the alleged settlement 19 with the four named plaintiffs and the status of the six opt-in plaintiffs, plaintiffs filed a motion 20 for reconsideration (Dkt. Nos. 441, 457, 462). Our local rules state that "no response need be 21 filed." Local Rule 7-9(d). Nevertheless, defendants are permitted to file a response (NOT TO 22 EXCEED TEN PAGES IN TOTAL) by NOON ON MARCH 24. 23 Both sides should continue their trial preparation for the plaintiffs set for trial. The six 24 opt-in plaintiffs have alleged FLSA claims and the four named plaintiffs have alleged FLSA and 25 state-law claims. 26 IT IS SO ORDERED. 27 Dated: March 18, 2014. 28
