

1 The Court's initial impression of defendants' burden argument—that it will have to 2 look through a few hundred personnel files in order to respond to Lou's requests—is that it
3 is not compelling. Nevertheless, defendants may submit a declaration further explaining the 4 burden of responding to Lou's other written requests for discovery. Defendants must file
5 their declaration by March 20, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. Lou may file a response to defendants' 6 declaration by March 22, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. The Court will hold a hearing on the matter on 7 March 27, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. in Courtroom A, 15th Floor, U.S. District Court, 450 Golden 8 Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.

9 After considering defendants' claims of undue burden, the Court will set a deadline 10 for production of the other discovery Lou seeks. In the interim, the parties must meet and 11 confer regarding the terms of any proposed protective order that might govern the discovery 12 Lou seeks. The parties must file any proposed protective order, or in the unlikely event that 13 the parties cannot reach an agreement as to the terms of an order, a letter brief describing 14 the disagreement, by March 22, 2013 at 5:00 p.m.

15 IT IS SO ORDERED.

16 Date: March 13, 2013
