CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

1. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons and the United States Marshal shall serve, without prepayment of fees, a copy of the complaint in this matter, all attachments thereto, and a copy of this order upon T. King, M. Reynoso, M. Espinoza, and J.L. Cortez at Pelican Bay State Prison. The Clerk shall also mail courtesy copies of the complaint and this order to the California Attorney General’s Office.

2. No later than ninety (90) days from the date of this order, defendants shall file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion with respect to the claims in the complaint found to be cognizable above.

a. If defendants elect to file a motion to dismiss on the grounds plaintiff failed to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), defendants shall do so in an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119–20 (9th Cir. 2003), cert. denied Alameida v. Terhune, 540 U.S. 810 (2003).

b. Any motion for summary judgment shall be supported by adequate factual documentation and shall conform in all respects to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendants are advised that summary judgment cannot be granted, nor qualified immunity found, if material facts are in dispute. If any defendant is of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, he shall so inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due.

3. Plaintiff’s opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the Court and served on defendants no later than forty-five (45) days from the date defendants’ motion is filed.

a. In the event the defendants file an unenumerated motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b), plaintiff is hereby cautioned as follows:

1 The defendants have made a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b) of the 2 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on the ground you have not exhausted your administrative 3 remedies. The motion will, if granted, result in the dismissal of your case. When a party you
4 are suing makes a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust, and that motion is properly
5 supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony) and/or documents, you may not simply 6 rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, 7 depositions, answers to interrogatories, or documents, that contradict the facts shown in the 8 defendant’s declarations and documents and show that you have in fact exhausted your 9 claims. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, the motion to dismiss, if 10 appropriate, may be granted and the case dismissed.

11 b. In the event defendants file a motion for summary judgment, 12 the Ninth Circuit has held that the following notice should be given to plaintiffs:

13 The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they 14 seek to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule
15 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.
16 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
17 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no
18 genuine issue of material fact — that is, if there is no real dispute about any
19 fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary
20 judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case.
21 When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is 22 properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot 23 simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific 24 facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated 25 documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the 26 defendants’ declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue
27 of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, 28 summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted in favor of defendants, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial. See Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc). Plaintiff is advised to read Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986) (holding party opposing summary judgment must come forward with evidence showing triable issues of material fact on every essential element of his claim). Plaintiff is cautioned that failure to file an opposition to defendants’ motion for summary judgment may be deemed to be a consent by plaintiff to the granting of the motion, and granting of judgment against plaintiff without a trial. *See Ghazali
v. Moran*, 46 F.3d 52, 53–54 (9th Cir. 1995) (per curiam); Brydges v. Lewis, 18
F.3d 651, 653 (9th Cir. 1994).

1 4. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fifteen (15) days after 2 plaintiff's opposition is filed.

3 5. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due. No
4 hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

5 6. All communications by the plaintiff with the Court must be served on 6 defendants, or defendants' counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy
7 of the document to defendants or defendants' counsel.

8 7. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 9 Procedure. No further court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2) or Local 10 Rule 16-1 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

11 8. It is plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the 12 court informed of any change of address and must comply with the court's orders in a timely 13 fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute 14 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

15 9. Extensions of time must be filed no later than the deadline sought to be 16 extended and must be accompanied by a showing of good cause.

17 10. A recent decision from the Ninth Circuit requires that pro se prisoner-plaintiffs 18 be given "notice of what is required of them in order to oppose" summary judgment motions
19 at the time of filing of the motions, rather than when the court orders service of process or 20 otherwise before the motions are filed. Woods v. Carey, No. 09-15548, slip op. 7871, 7874 21 (9th Cir. July 6, 2012). Defendants shall provide the following notice to plaintiff when 22 they file and serve any motion for summary judgment:

23 The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek 24 to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

25 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
26 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no
27 genuine issue of material fact — that is, if there is no real dispute about any
fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case.
