UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

NEXTDOOR.COM, INC.,
Plaintiff,

No. C-12-5667 EMC

v.

RAJ ABHYANKER,
Defendant.

ORDER RE PARTIES' DISCOVERY
LETTER BRIEF OF JUNE 4, 2014
(Docket No. 206)

RAJ ABHYANKER,
Counterclaimant,

v.

NEXTDOOR.COM, INC., et al.,
Counterdefendants.

To the extent that Nextdoor.com is refusing to produce AEO (Attorneys' Eyes Only) documents until Abhyanker's counsel certifies that Abhyanker will not review them and that a protocol will be established preventing Abhyanker's access, the Court orders as follows:

- (1) Nextdoor.com may designate documents as AEO in accordance with the Protective Order (Docket No. 102);
- (2) Abhyanker's counsel shall make the certification above; and
- (3) Nextdoor.com shall produce the AEO documents immediately upon such certification.

1 If Abhyanker believes the documents are overdesignated, he may seek remedies provided for
2 in the Protective Order.

3 As to the request for production Abhyanker has served on Sood and Monsoon, the parties
4 shall stipulate to which requests for production are relevant to the remaining trade secret claim, and
5 Sood and Monsoon shall accordingly respond to the requests.

6 Abhyanker's request to extend discovery and production of expert reports by 30 days is 7 denied.

8 From this point forward, discovery is referred to a magistrate judge, who will be assigned by 9 the Court. All further discovery disputes, including those that arise out of this Order, shall be 10 addressed to the magistrate judge.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
