

1 Path and Plaintiffs are presently engaged in bilateral settlement discussions and intend to 2 continue those discussions. The undersigned parties have also agreed to engage in a joint 3 mediation in an attempt to settle this matter, in which Path will participate if bilateral settlement
4 discussions have not succeeded. To allow the parties to focus on the success of settlement 5 discussions, the undersigned parties have agreed that all current deadlines in this action, with the 6 exception of the dates related to the briefing and argument of the pending Twitter and Apple 7 summary judgment motions should be vacated, and all fact discovery stayed.

8 In place of those deadlines, the Parties propose a joint case management statement be filed
9 within 14 days of the Ninth Circuit's response to Apple's Petition proposing a revised schedule 10 that allows sufficient time for the parties to complete their mediation and settlement discussions.
11 The parties further propose that in no event shall the defendants have less than 30 days from the 12 revised scheduling order to oppose Plaintiffs' Motions for Class Certification and in no event 13 shall the parties have less than three months from the revised scheduling order to complete fact 14 discovery.
