16 INTRODUCTION

17 Plaintiff, a California prisoner at the California Training Facility (“CTF”), filed 18 this pro se civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. His application to proceed in 19 forma pauperis is granted in a separate order. The complaint is served upon certain 20 defendants based upon the claims found cognizable below. The remaining claims are 21 dismissed.

22 STANDARD OF REVIEW

23 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2) requires only "a short and plain statement 24 of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." "Specific facts are not 25 necessary; the statement need only "give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim 26 is and the grounds upon which it rests."" Erickson v. Pardus, 127 S. Ct. 2197, 2200
27 (2007) (citations omitted). Although in order to state a claim a complaint “does not need 28 detailed factual allegations, . . . a plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds of his

1 'entitle[ment] to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic 2 recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do. . . . Factual allegations must 3 be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative level." Bell Atlantic Corp. v.
4 Twombly, 127 S. Ct. 1955, 1964-65 (2007) (citations omitted). A complaint must proffer
5 "enough facts to state a claim for relief that is plausible on its face." Id. at 1974. Pro se 6 pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 7 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

8 To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two elements:
9 (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and 10 (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state 11 law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

12 LEGAL CLAIMS

13 Plaintiff claims that his Eighth Amendment rights were violated based upon 14 defendants' deliberate indifference to his medical needs in two instances: he was not 15 provided a gurney for transportation when he had a medical emergency based on severe 16 back pain, and he was denied a two day "lay-in" following that emergency. These 17 allegations, when liberally construed, state cognizable claims for relief against 18 Defendants Grounds, Chudy, Walker, Childers, Hall and Arvin for their involvement in 19 his medical care. Plaintiff names two additional defendants, Jacobson and Nixon, but 20 does not allege that they participated in the medical care of Plaintiff or that they were 21 involved in denying him the care he needed. Rather, he simply alleges in conclusory 22 terms that they were supervisors who were generally responsible for the medical care of 23 all inmates, which is not sufficient to state a "plausible" claim for relief against them.
24 See Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 675-84 (2009); Henry A. v. Willden, 678 F.3d 991, 25 1003-04 (9th Cir. 2012).

26 Plaintiff also claims that Defendants Dixon, Grounds, Walker and Ellis 27 improperly processed and denied his administrative grievances. Such claims are not 28 cognizable because there is no constitutional right to a grievance procedure in prison.

1     See Ramirez v. Galaza, 334 F.3d 850, 860 (9th Cir. 2003); Mann v. Adams, 855 F.2d 2     639, 640 (9th Cir. 1988). Plaintiff also claims that these actions violated his 3     constitutional right to access the courts. Plaintiff was not denied access to the courts 4     because he has not alleged that he was prevented from pursuing his claims in court and 5     indeed he has done so in the instant action. See Lewis v. Casey, 518 U.S. 343, 354-55
6     (1996) (access to courts claim requires showing that prison officials hindered plaintiff's 7     efforts to pursue a non-frivolous claim in federal court). Consequently, the claims 8     regarding the improper processing of administrative appeals and for denial of access to 9     the courts will be dismissed.

10                                   CONCLUSION

11             For the reasons set out above, the Court orders as follows:

12             1. The claims under the Eighth Amendment for the deprivation of medical care
13     against Defendants R. Grounds, Dr. M.J. Chudy, J. Walker, Registered Nurse Hall, 14     Arvin, and Childers are, when liberally construed, cognizable. The remaining claims are 15     DISMISSED.

16             2. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons and the United States Marshal 17     shall serve, without prepayment of fees, a copy of the complaint and all attachments 18     thereto, and a copy of this order upon Defendants Warden R. Grounds, Chief Medical 19     Officer Dr. M.J. Chudy, Registered Nurse Hall, Correctional Officer Arvin, and 20     Correctional Officer Childers at the California Training Facility in Soledad, 21     California, and upon Defendant J. Walker at the California Department of 22     Corrections and Rehabilitation in Sacramento, California.

23             The Clerk shall also mail a courtesy copy of the complaint with all attachments 24     thereto, and this order to the California Attorney General's Office.

25             The Clerk shall also serve a copy of this order on Plaintiff.

26             3. Defendants shall file an answer to the complaint in accordance with the 27     Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

28             4. In order to expedite the resolution of this case:

1 a. No later than 91 days from the date this order is filed, defendants shall 2 file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. If defendants are of the 3 opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, they shall so inform the 4 court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due. All papers filed with the 5 court shall be promptly served on the plaintiff.

6 b. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion, if any, shall be filed with 7 the court and served upon defendants no later than 28 days from the date of service of 8 the motion. Plaintiff must read the attached page headed "NOTICE -- WARNING," 9 which is provided to him pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 953-954 (9th Cir.
10 1998) (en banc), and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409, 411-12 (9th Cir. 1988).

11 If defendants file an unenumerated motion to dismiss claiming that plaintiff failed 12 to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), 13 plaintiff should take note of the attached page headed "NOTICE -- WARNING 14 (EXHAUSTION)," which is provided to him as required by Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 15 1108, 1120 n. 4 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, Alameida v. Wyatt, 124 S.Ct 50 (2003).

16 c. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than 14 days after the date of 17 service of the opposition.

18 d. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is 19 due. No hearing will be held on the motion unless the court so orders at a later date.

20 e. Along with their motion, defendants shall proof that they served 21 plaintiff the applicable warning(s) required by Woods v. Carey, No. 09-15548, slip op.
22 7871 (9th Cir. July 6, 2012) and/or Stratton v. Buck, No. 10-35656, slip op. 11477 (9th 23 Cir. Sept. 19, 2012), at the same time they served him with their motion. Failure to do so 24 will result in the summary dismissal of their motion without prejudice.

25 5. All communications by the plaintiff with the court must be served on 26 defendant, or defendant's counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true 27 copy of the document to defendant or defendant's counsel.

28 6. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil

1 Procedure. No further court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2) or 2 Local Rule 16-1 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

3 7. It is the plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the 4 court informed of any change of address and must comply with the court's orders in a 5 timely fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to 6 prosecute pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.

1                                   NOTICE -- WARNING (SUMMARY JUDGMENT)

2           If defendants move for summary judgment, they are seeking to have your case 3 dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 4 Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

5           Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment.
6 Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material 7 fact--that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, 8 the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which 9 will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

10                                   NOTICE -- WARNING (EXHAUSTION)

11           If defendants file a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust administrative remedies, they 12 are seeking to have your case dismissed. If the motion is granted it will end your case and there 13 will be no trial.

14           A motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust administrative remedies is similar to a motion 15 for summary judgment in that the court will consider materials beyond the pleadings. You have 16 the right to present any evidence you may have which tends to show that you did exhaust your 17 administrative remedies. Such evidence may be in the form of declarations (statements signed 18 under penalty of perjury) or authenticated documents, that is, documents accompanied by a 19 declaration showing where they came from and why they are authentic, or other sworn papers, 20 such as answers to interrogatories or depositions. In considering a motion to dismiss for failure 21 to exhaust administrative remedies, the court can decide disputed factual matters with regard to 22 the exhaustion question. Because the court can resolve factual disputes, unlike a summary 23 judgment opposition, it is not enough to merely show a genuine issue of material fact in 24 opposition to the motion to dismiss.
