32 | COME NOW PLAINTIFF IBIZ AND DEFENDANT CITY AND STIPULATE AS FOLLOWS:

1 Per this Court's Minute Order (Doc. 46) issued on August 5, 2013, the Case Management
2 Conference in this case is currently set for November 22, 2013 and the Case Management
3 Conference Statement is due on November 15, 2013.

4 The parties mutually request that the Court continue the Case Management Conference to 5 February 7, 2014, and that the filing date for the Case Management Conference Statement be 6 continued to January 31, 2014. This request is made for the following reasons:

7 (1) The significant orders issued by the Court in both this case and the related case of Net
8 Connection, Hayward, LLC v. City of Hayward, N.D.Cal. No. 12-cv-1212 SC, are still 9 being evaluated by the Hayward City Council. Until it completes its evaluation, neither 10 the City nor Plaintiff will be able to assess the future of this case. Accordingly, they 11 would mutually prefer to postpone the Case Management Conference until they know 12 what the City's response to the Court's Orders will be.

13 (2) At this time, there is amendatory legislation presently scheduled to be introduced at the 14 December 10, 2013 City Council Meeting. If the City Council introduces the item, it 15 will be considered for adoption on December 17, 2013.

16 (3) Also, after the City Council has resolved its position, Plaintiff would need time to assess 17 any such position before determining how it wants to proceed in this litigation.

18 (4) Until the City resolves its legislative and enforcement positions, Plaintiff is not 19 presently sure whether it will be necessary to amend its pleadings before proceeding 20 with its prosecution of this case.

21 (5) Counsel had agreed to seek a CMC hearing on January 31st, but after phoning the 22 court's clerk, found that date unavailable.

23 For each of these reasons, the parties believe that a continuance of the Case 24 Management Conference until February 7, 2014, would be in the best interests of both sides and 25 would be the most efficient and economical way to proceed. The parties have checked with this 26 Court's clerk and confirmed that February 7, 2014, would be an available date for the continued 27 hearing.
