1 2 3 4 5 6 7 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 8 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 9 10 JUAN RODRIGUEZ, #AH4074, Plaintiff(s), No. C 13-1819 CRB (PR) 11 12 ORDER OF SERVICE v. 13 ROSANA LIM JAVATE, M.D., et al., 14 Defendant(s). 15 Plaintiff, a prisoner at the Correctional Training Facility (CTF) in Soledad, 16 California, has filed a pro se Second Amended Complaint (SAC) for damages 17 18 under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging that Dr. Rosana Lim Javate improperly denied 19 and delayed his treating physicians' referrals for bunion surgery, and that L. D. 20 Zamora, the chief of California Correctional Health Care Services, largely ignored his pleas for intervention. Plaintiff also names as defendants Warden M. 21 22 Spearman and California Attorney General Kamala D. Harris. 23 Plaintiff also requests appointment of counsel under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. DISCUSSION 24 25 Α. Standard of Review Federal courts must engage in a preliminary screening of cases in which 26 27 prisoners seek redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a 28 governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The court must identify cognizable claims or dismiss the complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint "is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted," or "seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief." Id. § 1915A(b). Pro se pleadings must be liberally construed, however. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

B. Legal Claims

Deliberate indifference to serious medical needs violates the Eighth Amendment's proscription against cruel and unusual punishment. Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 104 (1976). A "serious medical need" exists if the failure to treat a prisoner's condition could result in further significant injury or the "unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain." McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059 (9th Cir. 1992) (citing Estelle, 429 U.S. at 104), overruled in part on other grounds by WMX Technologies, Inc. v. Miller, 104 F.3d 1133, 1136 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc). A prison official is "deliberately indifferent" if he knows that a prisoner faces a substantial risk of serious harm and disregards that risk by failing to take reasonable steps to abate it. Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825, 837 (1994).

Liberally construed, plaintiff's allegations that Dr. Rosana Lim Javate improperly denied and delayed his treating physicians' referrals for bunion surgery, and that Chief L. D. Zamora largely ignored his pleas for intervention, appear to state a cognizable § 1983 claim for deliberate indifference to serious medical needs against these two defendants and will be ordered served on them. But Warden M. Spearman and California Attorney General Kamala D. Harris are dismissed because plaintiff sets forth no allegations against them other than their being responsible for the actions or omissions of their subordinates and it is well established that there is no liability under § 1983 solely because one is responsible for the actions or omissions of another. See Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989).

C. Request for Appointment of Counsel

Plaintiff's request for appointment of counsel is DENIED for lack of exceptional circumstances. See Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 1017 (9th Cir. 1991); Wilborn v. Escalderon, 789 F.2d 1328, 1331 (9th Cir. 1986).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons and for good cause shown,

- 1. The clerk shall issue summons and the United States Marshal shall serve, without prepayment of fees, copies of the SAC in this matter (docket #12; initially filed as original complaint in civil case number 13-4822) and all attachments thereto, and copies of this order on the following defendants: Dr. Rosana Lim Javarte at CTF, and Chief L. D. Zamora at California Correctional Health Care Services, P.O. 4038, Sacramento, CA 95812-4038. Warden M. Spearman and California Attorney General Kamala D. Harris are dismissed. The clerk also shall serve a copy of this order on plaintiff.
- In order to expedite the resolution of this case, the court orders as 2. follows:
- No later than 90 days from the date of this order, defendants a. shall serve and file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. A motion for summary judgment must be supported by adequate factual documentation and must conform in all respects to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56, and must include as exhibits all records and incident reports stemming from the events at issue. A motion for summary judgment also must be accompanied by a Rand notice so that plaintiff will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of him in order to oppose the motion. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 935 (9th Cir. 2012) (notice requirement set out in Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952 (9th Cir. 1998), must be served concurrently with motion for summary judgment). A motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies must be accompanied by a similar notice. Stratton v. Buck, 697 F.3d 1004, 1008 (9th Cir. 2012); Woods, 684 F.3d at 935 (notice requirement set out in Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108 (9th Cir. 2003), must be served concurrently with motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies).

If defendants are of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment or other dispositive motion, they shall so inform the court prior to the date their motion is due. All papers filed with the court shall be served promptly on plaintiff.

- b. Plaintiff must serve and file an opposition or statement of non-opposition to the dispositive motion not more than 28 days after the motion is served and filed.
- c. Plaintiff is advised that a motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case. Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradicts the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial. Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 962-63 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc) (App. A).

Plaintiff also is advised that a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies under 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) will, if granted, end your case, albeit without prejudice. You must "develop a record" and present it in your opposition in order to dispute any "factual record" presented by the defendants in their motion to dismiss. Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th Cir. 2003). You have the right to present any evidence to show that you did exhaust your available administrative remedies before coming to federal court. Such evidence may include: (1) declarations, which are statements signed under penalty of perjury by you or others who have personal knowledge of relevant matters; (2) authenticated documents – documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they are authentic, or other sworn papers such as answers to interrogatories or depositions; (3) statements in your complaint insofar as they were made under penalty of perjury and they show that you have personal knowledge of the matters state therein. In considering a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust, the court can decide disputed issues of

1	fact with regard to this portion of the case. Stratton, 69/ F.3d at 1008-09.
2	(The Rand and Wyatt/Stratton notices above do not excuse defendants'
3	obligation to serve said notices again concurrently with motions to dismiss for
4	failure to exhaust available administrative remedies and motions for summary
5	judgment. Woods, 684 F.3d at 935.)
6	d. Defendants must serve and file a reply to an opposition not
7	more than 14 days after the opposition is served and filed.
8	e. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the
9	reply is due. No hearing will be held on the motion unless the court so orders at a
10	later date.
11	3. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of
12	Civil Procedure. No further court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
13	30(a)(2) or Local Rule 16 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.
14	4. All communications by plaintiff with the court must be served on
15	defendants, or defendants' counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing
16	a true copy of the document to defendants or defendants' counsel.
17	5. It is plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must
18	keep the court and all parties informed of any change of address and must comply
19	with the court's orders in a timely fashion. Failure to do so may result in the
20	dismissal of this action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).
21	SO ORDERED.
