CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

1. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons and the United States Marshal shall serve, without prepayment of fees, a copy of the complaint in this matter, all attachments thereto, and a copy of this order upon J. Rhoads, F. Tuvera, D. Bright, R. Mack, K. Rasheed, and G. Pineda at Salinas Valley State Prison. The Clerk shall also mail courtesy copies of the complaint and this order to the California Attorney General’s Office.

2. No later than ninety (90) days from the date of this order, defendants shall file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion with respect to the claims in the complaint found to be cognizable above.

a. If defendants elect to file a motion to dismiss on the grounds plaintiff failed to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), defendants shall do so in a motion for summary judgment, as required by Albino v. Baca, No. 10-55702, slip op. at 4 (9th Cir. Apr. 3, 2014) (en banc).

b. Any motion for summary judgment shall be supported by adequate factual documentation and shall conform in all respects to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendants are advised that summary judgment cannot be granted, nor qualified immunity found, if material facts are in dispute. If any defendant is of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, he shall so inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due.

3. Plaintiff’s opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the Court and served on defendants no later than forty-five (45) days from the date defendants’ motion is filed.

4. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fifteen (15) days after plaintiff’s opposition is filed.

1 5. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due. No
2 hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

3 6. All communications by the plaintiff with the Court must be served on 4 defendants, or defendants' counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy
5 of the document to defendants or defendants' counsel.

6 7. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 7 Procedure. No further court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2) or Local 8 Rule 16-1 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

9 8. It is plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the 10 court informed of any change of address and must comply with the court's orders in a timely
11 fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute 12 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

13 9. Extensions of time must be filed no later than the deadline sought to be 14 extended and must be accompanied by a showing of good cause.

15 10. A decision from the Ninth Circuit requires that pro se prisoner-plaintiffs
16 be given "notice of what is required of them in order to oppose" summary judgment motions
17 at the time of filing of the motions, rather than when the court orders service of process or 18 otherwise before the motions are filed. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 935 (9th Cir. 2012).

19 Defendants shall provide the following notice to plaintiff when they file and serve any 20 motion for summary judgment:

21 The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek 22 to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56
23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

24 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
25 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no
26 genuine issue of material fact — that is, if there is no real dispute about any 27 fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary
28 judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case.
When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendants' declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
