26 The parties, through their respective counsel of record, submit the following stipulation
 27 and request that the Court issue an order as requested:
 28

1 WHEREAS, on September 3, 2013, defendant United States Internal Revenue Service
2 (“IRS”) filed a Motion to Dismiss (“the Motion”);

3 WHEREAS, on September 11, 2013, the Court approved a stipulation extending Plaintiff’s
4 time to respond to September 30, 2013, and Defendant’s time to reply to October 7, 2013.

5 WHEREAS, Plaintiff filed its opposition on September 30, 2013;

6 WHEREAS, at the end of the same day, the appropriations act that had been funding the 7 Department of Justice expired, and appropriations to the Department, as well as to the Internal 8 Revenue Service, elapsed, and given the complexity of the issues in this case, the Department will
9 need more time, even once funding is restored, to work with the Internal Revenue Service on a
10 reply to Plaintiff’s opposition;

11 WHEREAS, absent an appropriation, Department of Justice attorneys and employees of 12 the Internal Revenue Service are prohibited from working, even on a voluntary basis, except in 13 very limited circumstances, including “emergencies involving the safety of human life or the 14 protection of property.” 31 U.S.C. § 1342;

15 WHEREAS, once funding is restored, the Department and the Internal Revenue Service
16 hope to file a reply within six business days.

17 WHERE, in light of the above, counsel for the parties have agreed to postpone
18 Defendant’s time to reply until six business day after funding is restored, and will coordinate with 19 the Court and each other should the delay necessitate postponement of the motion hearing
20 currently scheduled for October 23, 2013;

21 NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED THAT:

22 The reply currently due on October 7, 2013, may be filed within six business days after the 23 Department and the Internal Revenue Service are funded.
