Case No. 13-cv-02834-EDL

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS
PERMISSION TO FILE
SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF

Re: Dkt. No. 118

12
13 This is a mortgage case on remand from the Ninth Circuit for the Court to reconsider a
14 prior order dismissing the case in light of the California Supreme Court's decision in Yvanova v.
15 New Century Mortgage Corp., 62 Cal. 4th 919 (Feb. 18, 2016). In the parties' recent case
16 management conference statement, they agreed that they previously briefed the issue of Yvanova's
17 impact on the case and "agree[d] that their respective positions are set forth in the briefs
18 previously filed with the Ninth Circuit." They jointly requested that "the Court order the parties to 19 simply re-file their previously submitted briefs via ECF." In light of this agreement, the Court
20 ordered the parties to file the briefs previously submitted to the Ninth Circuit with this Court. Dkt.
21 No. 111.

22 All parties filed their Ninth Circuit briefs in this Court. However, Plaintiff also filed what
23 appears to be a Reply brief recently filed by counsel in another case before the Ninth Circuit
24 addressing Yvanova. Defendants object to Plaintiff's unauthorized supplemental filing, and seek
25 to have the supplemental brief from the other case stricken, or alternatively request an opportunity
26 to respond.

27 The Court will not strike Plaintiff's unauthorized supplemental brief. Each group of 28 Defendants is permitted to file a supplemental brief of no more than five pages, within one week of the date of this Order, responding to any new arguments presented in Plaintiff's supplemental filing relating to Yvanova.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
