UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SYNOPSIS, INC.,
Plaintiff,
v.
ATOPTECH, INC,
Defendant.

Case No. 13-cv-02965-MMC (DMR)

ORDER FOR SUPPLEMENTAL LETTER

Re: Dkt. No. 272

On April 2, 2015, Plaintiff Synopsis Inc. filed a motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration. [Docket No. 272.] In that motion, Synopsis seeks an order requiring Defendant ATopTech to produce the source code for ATopTech's Aprisa or Apogee products.

On April 9, 2015, the Honorable Maxine M. Chesney issued an order lifting the stay on Synopsis's claims based on certain patents; granting Synopsis' motion to bifurcate its copyright and breach claims from its patent claims; and deferring ruling on Synopsis's motion to bifurcate its copyright and breach claims from ATopTech's antitrust counterclaims. [Docket No. 280.]

By April 20, 2015, Synopsis shall file a letter of no more than one page stating whether it intends to seek the source code for ATopTech's Aprisa or Apogee products at this time on the basis of Judge Chesney's April 9 Order. If so, Synopsis shall also indicate whether it has communicated to ATopTech and whether the parties have met and conferred about the issue.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 15, 2015

Donna M. Ryu
United States Magistrate Judge
