

1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

3
4
5 RAYMOND E. ESCHE, et al.,

6 Plaintiffs,

7 v.

8 McKESSON CORPORATION, et al.,

9 Defendants.

NO. C13-3062 TEH

ORDER DENYING
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO LIFT
STAY

10
11 The Court stayed this matter on July 15, 2013, pending its conditional transfer to 12 Multidistrict Litigation ("MDL") Docket No. 1871, In re: Avandia Marketing, Sales
13 Practices and Products Liability Litigation. Plaintiffs have moved to lift the stay, and the 14 Court has carefully considered the parties' arguments – including the late supplemental
15 papers submitted by both parties in violation of Civil Local Rule 7-3(d). The Court does not 16 find good cause to lift the stay. The vast majority of similar cases filed in this district have 17 been stayed, and the Court finds it in the interests of judicial economy and uniformity to 18 allow the MDL process to take its course, particularly given that the Judicial Panel on 19 Multidistrict Litigation has scheduled this matter for consideration on September 26, 2013.
20 The Court also finds no prejudice to continuing the stay. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' motion to 21 lift the stay is DENIED.

22
23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
