1. At the initial case management conference, the parties or at least one attorney of record for each party must appear in person. See FRCP 26(f) ; Civil LR 16-10(a).
2. The case management statement may not exceed ten pages. It should briefly describe the parties’ controversy. Any party seeking damages must set forth in the statement the amount sought and the basis for its calculation.
3. If the case was removed from a state court, and the applicable state law has not required the parties to make an express demand for a jury trial at the time of removal, any party claiming right to a jury trial must make the request therefor within fourteen (14) days after service of the notice of removal. FRCP 81 (c).

Within 125 days after the filing of the complaint, you must file proof of service indicating which defendants were served within the 120 days allowed under Rule 4 (m) and showing, in accordance with Rule 4 (l), how each of those defendants was served (for example, by attaching appropriate certificates of service). 2. Scheduling Days:
  - a. Criminal Calendar is conducted on Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. for sentencing and 2:00 p.m. for all other matters.
  - b. Civil Law and Motion Calendar is conducted on Fridays at 10:00 a.m.
  - c. Case Management Conferences are conducted on Fridays at 8:30 a.m.
  - d. Pretrial conferences are generally conducted at 2:30 p.m. on days determined by the Court.
  - e. For all hearing and conferences, order of call is determined by the Court.
  - f. Counsel need not reserve a hearing date for motions, however, counsel are advised to check the Court website for unavailable dates. Noticed dates may be reset as the Court's calendar requires.
3. Motions to compel discovery are referred to a Magistrate Judge for assignment. Therefore, counsel are required to file a notice of discovery disputes to initiate a referral in lieu of filing discovery motions before this Court.
4. No changes in the Court's schedule shall be made except by signed order of the Court and only upon a showing of good cause. Parties seeking to continue hearings, request special status conferences, modify briefing schedules, or make other procedural changes shall submit a signed stipulation and proposed order, or, if stipulation is not possible, an ex parte application in writing.
5. Briefs or Memoranda of Points and Authorities in support of, or in opposition to, any motions filed in an action must be typed on 28-line, double-spaced pleading paper and, except for summary judgment motions, may not exceed FIFTEEN (15) pages in length, exclusive of title pages, indexes of cases, table of contents, exhibits, affidavits and summaries of argument, if required. Briefs exceeding ten (10) pages in length must contain an additional summary of argument, including reference to any important cases cited. Summary judgment memoranda may not exceed 25 pages. Each party is limited to filing one summary judgment motion. Any party wishing to exceed this limit must request leave of the Court and must show good cause. Counsel shall submit a proposed form of order with all motion and opposition papers.
6. Parties must file a single (no duplicates) courtesy chambers copy of all filings. The courtesy copy must be delivered to the Clerk's Office no later than noon on the court day following the day that the document was electronically filed. Note: These deadlines differ from those in Civil Local Rule 5-1(e)(7)(A).
7. All chambers copies should be three-hole punched along the left side of the page, and should bear the ECF filing "stamp" (case number, docket number, date, and ECF page number) along the top of the page. All exhibits shall be clearly delineated with tabs along the right side (e.g., "1", "2", "3"). If the filing includes exhibits over three inches thick, the parties shall place the chambers copy in a binder. The Court prefers double-sided printing for voluminous chambers copies of exhibits, if possible.

8. To the extent that filings include under seal materials, chambers copies should include all material – both redacted and unredacted – so that the chambers staff does not have to re-assemble the whole brief or declaration, although chambers copies should clearly delineate which portions are confidential (via highlighting).

9. Counsel in civil matters shall comply with the Court’s Guidelines for trial and pre-trial conference.

10. Plaintiffs must serve copies of this order at once upon all parties to an action and upon those subsequently joined in accordance with the provisions of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4 and 5 and file with the Clerk of the Court a certificate reflecting such service.
