City Manager
City of Richmond
450 Civic Center Plaza
Richmond, California 94804-1630

Dear Mr. Lindsay:

The law firm of Jones Day represents U.S. Bank National Association, as Trustee (“U.S. Bank” or “Trustee”) of certain residential mortgage-backed securities trusts (the “Trusts”) identified in your letter dated July 31, 2013 (the “Letter”). Please direct all further communications concerning this matter to my attention.

We are in receipt of the Letter, which indicates that the City of Richmond (the “City”) is offering to acquire all mortgage loans listed in Attachment A to the Letter (the “Subject Loans”). The Letter further states that the City retained Mortgage Industry Advisory Corporation to conduct an appraisal of the purported “fair market value” of the Subject Loans, and that the City is offering to purchase the Subject Loans at such “fair market value.” The Letter also indicates that the appraisals appear in Attachment B to the Letter. Attachment B also purportedly contains the basis for the City’s offer as to each of the Subject Loans. Finally, the Letter requests a response to the City’s offer by August 13, 2013, and threatens to initiate eminent domain proceedings if that offer is not accepted.

Please be aware that Attachment A to the Letter appears to contain inaccurate and/or incomplete information, which prevents U.S. Bank from responding fully to the offer. Based on our initial review, for example, it appears that U.S. Bank is not the trustee with respect to trusts that may hold certain of the Subject Loans identified in Attachment A, and/or that certain of the loan numbers or Trust names identified therein are inaccurate. We are unable to verify, for example, that U.S. Bank is the trustee with respect to any trust holding the following mortgage loans listed in Attachment A: 829242, 6392988157, 130938533, 405992498, 153233069, and 62009659. To the extent the City has information establishing that U.S. Bank is the proper trustee with respect to any trust holding these Subject Loans, please provide such information. Such information should come in the form of a new notice letter that lists only those mortgage loans for which U.S. Bank serves as the trustee of the trust holding such loans.

In addition, the Letter did not contain Attachment B, and therefore did not contain any information as to the amount or basis of the City's offer to purchase the Subject Loans. We therefore further request that the City provide a new notice letter which contains the information required by law, specifically the amount being offered for each of the Subject Loans and a correct description of the property subject to the offer.

Due to these errors and/or oversights, the Letter is deficient and does not constitute an offer to purchase as required by California Code of Civil Procedure section 1245.230(c)(4). As such, we request that the City formally rescind the response date of August 13, 2013, and provide a new response date which is no less than fifteen days after mailing of the revised notice containing the information as to the amount and basis of the offer to purchase, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1245.235(b)(3).

Nothing in this letter should be deemed an admission or acknowledgement that the City has the right to purchase the Subject Loans, or that eminent domain proceedings are authorized by law. The Trustee reserves all rights.

Please feel free to contact me at 213-243-2445 if you have questions about the foregoing.

Sincerely,

Brian D. Hershman

Dear Sirs:

The law firm of Jones Day represents U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (“U.S. Bank” or “Trustee”) of certain residential mortgage-backed securities trusts (the “Trusts”) identified in Attachment A to the City of Richmond’s (the “City”) July 31, 2013 letter to U.S. Bank (the “Letter,” copy attached hereto at Tab 1). Please direct all further communications concerning this matter to my attention.

The Letter states that the City is offering to purchase from the Trusts those mortgage loans listed in Attachment A to the Letter (the “Subject Loans”). The Letter further states that the City retained a third party to conduct an appraisal of the purported “fair market value” of the Subject Loans and that the City is offering to purchase the Subject Loans at such “fair market value.” Attachment B to the Letter purportedly contains the amount and basis for the appraisals. Finally, the Letter requests a response by August 13, 2013, and threatens to seize the Subject Loans through eminent domain proceedings if the Trustee does not accept the City’s offer.

On August 8, 2013, the Trustee sent an initial response to the Letter (the “Initial Response,” copy attached hereto at Tab 2). In its Initial Response, the Trustee indicated that it was unable to fully react to the City’s offer because the Letter contains inaccurate and incomplete information. In particular, the Trustee advised that it appears U.S. Bank is not the trustee with respect to trusts that may hold certain of the Subject Loans on Attachment A, and/or that certain of the loan numbers or Trust names identified therein are misstated. In addition, the Initial Response stated that the Trustee had not received Attachment B. The Trustee thus requested a new notice letter listing only the Subject Loans for which U.S. Bank serves as the trustee of the relevant trust, along with a copy of Attachment B. The Trustee further indicated that the Trustee was entitled to no less than fifteen days to consider and respond to the corrected notice letter pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1245.235(b)(3). We understand that the City now intends to provide the Trustee with a corrected notice letter addressing the deficiencies described in the Initial Response. As the Trustee has not yet received such a corrected letter, however, the Trustee is forced to respond today to the original Letter.

The Trustee does not believe the agreements governing the Trusts holding the Subject Loans permit the Trustee to undertake the transfer of non-delinquent loans, as contemplated by the Letter. In addition, the Trustee believes controlling case law and relevant statutes and regulations further preclude the Trustee from proceeding with the sale of such loans. Moreover, seizing the Subject Loans by eminent domain is impermissible for the reasons, among others, set forth in the Amended Complaint filed on August 9, 2013 in The Bank of New York Mellon and U.S. Bank National Association v. City of Richmond, California, et al., 3:13-cv-3664-JCS (N.D. Cal.). Indeed, any effort by the City to obtain the Subject Loans through eminent domain proceedings would violate the United States Constitution, the California Constitution, the Richmond City Charter, the California Code of Civil Procedure, and California common law. The Trustee reminds the City that if it nonetheless attempts to proceed with such seizures through a resolution of necessity, it must give the Trustee adequate advance notice and an opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

Nothing in this letter should be deemed an admission or acknowledgement that the City has the right to purchase the Subject Loans, or that eminent domain proceedings are authorized by law. The Trustee reserves all rights and claims, including the right to interpose additional objections, as appropriate.

Please feel free to contact me at 213-243-2445 if you have questions about the foregoing.

Sincerely,

Brian D. Hershman
