IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

United States, ex rel.

No. C 13-03729 WHA

Michael A. Bruzzone, as Relator Original Source,

BRINGING THIS ACTION ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

ORDER RE FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AGAINST INTEL CORPORATION

c/o MELINDA HAAG,
United States Attorney
Northern District of California

And

c/o ERIC HOLDER
United States Attorney General
United States Department of Justice,

Plaintiffs,

v.

INTEL CORPORATION,

Defendant.

On January 24, 2014, plaintiff manually filed a “first amended qui tam complaint to recover damages for anti-competitive actions and retaliation.” The United States declined to intervene in this action long ago. After the declination, an October 2013 order stated “[t]he seal shall be lifted as to all other matters occurring in this action after the date of this order” (Dkt. No. 9).

A January 2014 order set a deadline to serve the only remaining defendant, Intel Corporation (Dkt. No. 18). On January 16, 2014, the United States provided written consent to dismissal of this action, so long as it was without prejudice to the United States (Dkt. No. 20).

Accordingly, the Clerk is HEREBY ORDERED to publicly docket plaintiff's first amended complaint. To be clear, the seal has been lifted and all existing deadlines remain in place. Since the United States has consented to dismissal, if Intel Corporation is not properly served by FEBRUARY 26, this action will be dismissed without further notice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 27, 2014.

WILLIAM ALSUP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
